Adolph Reed, Jr., Kenneth W. Warren

The Politics Of School Desegregation Comparative Case Studies Of Community Structure And Policy Making:

The Politics of School Integration Robert Crain, 2017-07-05 This book discusses desegregation as a community decision focusing on case studies from the 1960s Crain uses comparative techniques based on fifteen northern and southern cities The author seeks a total explanation for the decision to desegregate by determining its proximate causes and locating the roots of the decision in the economic social and political structure of the community This work represents the first attempt to conduct a genuinely scientific analysis of the political process by which school systems were desegregated in this period Robert L Crain documents the way in which eight non southern big city school systems met community demands to reduce segregation Reactions varied from immediate compliance to months and years of stubborn resistance some cities maintaining good relations with civil rights leaders and others becoming battlegrounds Differences in these reactions are explained and focus is brought to desegregation in the South New Orleans in particular The situation there is contrasted with six peacefully desegregated southern cities as well as the attitude of its powerful economic elite The concluding part of the book is a general consideration of the civil rights movement in the cities studied and the author considers the implications of his findings both for the future of school desegregation and for studies of community politics Employing comparative techniques and concentrating upon the outputs of political systems this is a highly innovative contribution to the study of community power structures and their relationship to educational systems It remains an effective supplement to courses in sociology political science and education as well as an important source of data for everyone concerned with the history of efforts for national integration

The Politics of School Desegregation Robert L. Crain, 1968 Historical Dictionary of School Segregation and Desegregation Jeffrey Raffel, 1998-10-15 Throughout the nation s history from before the Civil War through Reconstruction across the years of lynchings and segregation to the Brown v Board of Education decision and the battles over busing no issue has divided the American people more than race and at the heart of the race issue has been the conflict over school segregation and desegregation Prior to the Civil War South Carolina enacted the first compulsory illiteracy law which made it a crime to teach slaves to write and other Southern states soon followed South Carolina s example After the Civil War schools for blacks were founded throughout the South including many Historically Black Colleges and Universities The 1896 Plessy v Ferguson Supreme Court decision established the principle of separate but equal education which led to decades of segregation With the 1954 Brown decision the Supreme Court overturned the separate but equal principle and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 empowered the federal government to affect school desegregation The process of desegregation continues to this day with much debate and mixed results Through more than 260 alphabetically arranged entries this comprehensive reference book describes persons court decisions terms and concepts legislation reports and books types of plans and organizations central to the struggle for educational equality The volume covers topics ranging from emotionally laden terms such as busing to complex legal concepts such as de facto and de jure segregation Each entry includes factual information a summary of different viewpoints and a brief bibliography The book includes an introduction which outlines the history of school segregation and desegregation along with a chronology and extensive bibliographic material Thus this reference is a complete guide to school segregation and desegregation in elementary secondary and higher education in the United States The Desegregation Literature National Institute of Education (U.S.).

Desegregation Studies Staff,1976 The Study Of Educational Politics Jay D. Scribner,Donald H. Layton,2003-08-29 This text is intended to be of use as a guide for students scholars and researchers of the politics of education and of educational policy studies The comprehensive work surveys major trends between 1969 and 1994 with chapters synthesising political and policy developments at local national and state levels in the US as well as in the international arena The text contains in depth examinations of the emerging micropolitics of the field of education as well as policy analysis and cultural and feminist studies and bibliographies are provided at the end of each chapter Designed as both a text and a reference volume this special yearbook was planned in conjunction with the 25th anniversary of the Politics of Education Association in 1994

Black Studies, Cultural Politics, and the Evasion of Inequality Adolph Reed, Jr.,Kenneth W. Warren,2025-08-27 These historically grounded essays by Adolph Reed Jr and Kenneth W Warren incorporate essential historical contemporary and literary perspectives on Black cultural criticism to explore the full portrait of racial injustice and inequality in America Taking up such topics as the evolving politics of New Orleans before and after Hurricane Katrina and novels by Toni Morrison and Colson Whitehead this book engages with the Black Radical Tradition Afropessimism antiblackness race reductionism and other key theories and concepts in contemporary Black studies Challenging the prevailing assertion that longstanding white animus against nonwhite peoples sufficiently and adequately explains deepening injustice past injustice or present inequality the essays argue that such thinking fails to fully explain America s past and leaves us ill equipped to handle the continuing challenges in the present Tracing black cultural criticism across the 19th 20th and 21st centuries this book will appeal to students scholars and researchers of Black studies race and ethnic studies and contemporary and black American literature Chicano School Failure and Success Richard R. Valencia,2004-08-02 Examines from various perspectives the school failure and success of Chicano students The contributors include specialists in cultural and educational anthropology bilingual and special education educational history developmental psychology

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on the New Immigration: The new immigrant in American society Marcelo M. Suárez-Orozco,Carola Suárez-Orozco,Desirée Qin-Hilliard,2001 This six volume set focuses on Latin American Caribbean and Asian immigration which accounts for nearly 80 percent of all new immigration to the United States The volumes contain the essential scholarship of the last decade and present key contributions reflecting the major theoretical empirical and policy debates about the new immigration The material addresses vital issues of race gender and socioeconomic status as they intersect with the contemporary immigration experience Organized by theme each volume stands as an independent contribution to immigration studies with seminal journal articles and book chapters from hard to find sources comprising the most important literature on the subject The individual volumes include a brief preface presenting the major themes that emerge in the materials and a bibliography of further recommended readings In its coverage of the most influential scholarship on the social economic educational and civil rights issues revolving around new immigration this collection provides an invaluable resource for students and researchers in a wide range of fields including contemporary American history public policy education sociology political science demographics immigration law ESL linguistics and more

Research in Education ,1974 White Backlash and the Politics of Multiculturalism Roger Hewitt,2005-06-23

The murder of Stephen Lawrence led to the widest review of institutional racism seen in the UK Sections of the white working class communities in south London near to the scene of the murder however displayed deep hostility to the equalities and multiculturalist practice of the local state and other agencies Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book relates these phenomena to the backlash to multiculturalism evident during the 1990s in the USA Australia Canada the UK and other European countries It examines these within the unfolding social and political responses to race equalities in the UK and the USA from the 1960s to the present in the context of changes in social class and national political agendas This book is unique in linking a detailed study of a community at a time of its critical importance to national debates over racism and multiculturalism to historically wider international economic and social trends
