The Power Behind The All Blacks:

International Sport Richard William Cox, 2004 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new Sport in the Pacific CRichard King, 2017-07-05 Sport in the Pacific is a comparative consideration of the modern movement of Pacific peoples and their physical pursuits across national and cultural boundaries It covers Australia Japan and the United States Its contributors ensure a deeper understanding of the indigenous peoples of the Pacific particularly their social identities and cultural responses in the wake of the arrival of modern sport Sport in the Pacific comprises eight original contributions which analyze Polynesian and Abogirnal athletes and athletics in colonial and post colonial contexts Their analyses stress the importance of adaptation and appropriation reinvention and revivalism as well as diaspora and globalization The volume will have three overlapping themes change and continuity cultural and transcultural power and the complexity of race gender and national identity Sport in the Pacific in short compares the significance of modern sport in a largely ignored setting the indigenous societies of the Pacific This book was previously published as a special issue of International Journal of the History of Sport Voices from the Back of the Bus Stewart McKinney, 2011-01-25 Voices from the Back of the Bus provides a rare behind the scenes look at international rugby at the height of a golden period Recounted with genuine warmth and much humour over a hundred players recall the scrapes the games the laughs the glory and the gritty reality of the pre professional game Packed with true rugby tales from the days when men played purely for the love of the game and of their nation and multimillion pound contracts and sponsorship deals were unheard of this refreshing revealing and often hilarious collection will inspire sports fans of all generations Touching the Heart David Miller, 2021-10-25 After surviving a near fatal scalding aged three David Miller's life incentives emerged through involvement and achievement in a range of sports nearing amateur international level in football and athletics But then needing employment he retired at 22 to enter sports journalism Having written on 30 sports from 120 countries for four national newspapers Miller is perfectly placed to analyse and explain what drives those who excel in sport This anthology of 50 epic performers provides a mirror of the emotions and commitment that drive the imagination of the many and the ambitions of the elite From the unself conscious self discipline of Jesse Owens Stanley Matthews Jahangir Khan Torvill and Dean and Steve Redgrave to the fundamental loneliness and insecurity that galvanises spontaneous exhibitionists such as Jack Johnson George Best and Alex Higgins

Miller uncovers what makes these great athletes and sports stars tick The White Africans Gerald L'Ange,2012-04-17 The negotiated transfer of power in apartheid South Africa was the last act in the dismantling of white supremacy on the African continent While opening a new era for the whites in Africa it closed an earlier one that contains some of the most colourful episodes in world history In The White Africans South African journalist and writer Gerald L Ange gives a warts and all account of the European experience in Africa from the explorations of the 15th century Portuguese mariners to the presidential inauguration of Nelson Mandela in 1994 The story is traced through the Europeans exploration and settlement through their slavery and economic exploitation their conquest and colonisation through decolonisation and the liberation struggles in Kenya Algeria the Portuguese territories Rhodesia and Namibia to the negotiation of democracy in South Africa Avoiding both past falsities and recent distortions the book seeks the truth of the European experience examines the present situation of the white Africans and looks at what might lie ahead for them The Power Behind the All Blacks Paul Verdon,1999-01 For nearly a century the All Blacks have bestrode the highest rungs of the world rugby ladder Year in year out decade after decade they have forged an international record second to none At the beginning of 1999 the All Blacks test match success rate was 71.6 per cent far ahead of closest rivals South Africa 65 per cent England 50 per cent and Australia 47.5 per cent What I Think! Scott M.
