Curley,2023-04-28 In Elders Shades and Women Richard T Curley describes the ceremonial life of a Nilotic community in northern Uganda and traces the alterations in its ceremonial activities from the turn of the twentieth century to the beginning of extensive contact between the Langi and Europeans in the 1960s Setting his analysis within the broad context of Lango social organization Curley discusses the makeup of the community and shows how the innovations of the colonial period led to changes in kinship relations and residential patterns He is particularly attentive to the husband wife relationship and to the changing status of women within a patrilineal system After describing Lango social organization and the changes that it has undergone Curley turns to the three complexes of Lango ceremonial activity One of these traditionally performed by older men has virtually disappeared a victim of altered political relationships The second set comprising eight separate ceremonies performed for married women concerns the problem of incorporating a women into her husband s lineage while recognizing that she was born in her father s The third complex centering on spirit possession has become increasingly popular and women participate to a much greater extent than men The author treats his religious material within the framework of structural functionalism by concentrating on ceremonial activities rather than on belief and by relating the ceremonies to social processes He departs from structural functionalism however in borrowing heavily from work on the analysis of symbols and he attempts to describe change rather than analyzing Lango religious activity at a single point in time This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1973 THE POWER OF MIND SERIES: The Power of Concentration, The Key To Mental Power Development And Efficiency, Thought-Force in Business and Everyday Life, The Inner Consciousness... 50 Shades Of ICS(Indian Civil Service) Vineeta Niar,2025-04-30 For generations the image of the Indian Civil Service ICS has been synonymous with the very framework of the nation the unshakeable steel frame envisioned to uphold order drive progress and navigate the complexities of a billion strong populace From the crisp white uniform cutting through the dust to the distant wail of a siren clearing the path of importance the ICS embodies a perceived aura of authority purpose and the solemn duty of crafting modern India lifting its citizens from the depths of despair towards a brighter future This is the narrative etched into public consciousness a story of selfless service and unwavering dedication played out in the hallowed corridors of power and the quiet efficiency of countless offices But what lies beneath this carefully constructed facade Beyond the official reports and public pronouncements away from the manicured lawns and polished shoes exists a different reality one of bureaucratic inertia systemic indifference and the constant negotiation between principle and pragmatism Is the steel frame truly supporting the nation or merely preserving a status quo inherited from a colonial past designed more for control than for genuine upliftment How does an institution steeped in history and bound by complex rules truly connect with the diverse vibrant and often struggling soul of India it purports to serve It is into this nuanced and often contradictory world that 50 Shades Of ICS delves This novella ventures beyond the simplistic myths of selfless nation building to explore the intricate deeply human landscape of the Indian bureaucracy It peels back the layers to reveal the intoxicating allure of unchecked power the silent compromises made in teak paneled chambers and the stark sometimes startling contrast between the noble oath of service and the often gritty realities of its execution Prepare to meet the complex figures who inhabit this labyrinthine system navigating a world painted not in straightforward black and white

but in fifty compelling shades of grey
