The Preaching Event Lyman Beecher Lectures:

The Preaching Event John R. Claypool,1990 God's Word Through Preaching. The Lyman Beecher Lectures before the Theological Department of Yale College John Hall,2025-07-08 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Sacramentality of Preaching Todd Townshend,2009 In the time of the church transformation renewal and the process of coming to faith rely on the symbolic efficacy of speech where God is encountered as a word The Sacramentality of Preaching examines the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and incorporates it into contemporary homiletical theory in order to bolster and renew Christian proclamation that has an intentionally sacramental character Liturgical preachers will find practical pathways frameworks and common language through the use of this innovative sacramentology The Holy Spirit & Preaching James Forbes,2010-09-01 Describes what it means to be anointed with the Spirit so that one can preach to raise the dead In The Holy Spirit and Preaching James A Forbes Jr widely hailed as one of the nation s foremost preachers offers four dynamic lectures originally delivered as the Lyman Beecher Lectures at Yale University the most prestigious annual preaching event in the United States In each of the lectures Forbes focuses on the Holy Spirit as it relates to preaching He traces the Holy Spirit s activity in Jesus ministry and looks at the impact of being anointed by the Holy Spirit Forbes demonstrates how the Holy Spirit works with the pastor in the preparation and delivery of a sermon The Holy Spirit and Preaching concludes by focusing on the need for anointed preaching and the way anointed preaching happens today Preaching and the Personal J Dwayne Howell,2014-07-31 Preaching is a very personal process a minister or speaker prepares his or her own sermon and presents it to the congregation Sermons draw upon the Bible as a central source and the source provides a basis of faith for the believing community The preaching event is also personal for the individual members of the congregation who receive the preacher s words based on a biblical text in their own unique way In the synthesis of Biblical text sermon and listener response many testimonies are present Preaching and the Personal is a collection of papers that have been presented at the Society of Biblical Literature These papers encourage and nurture dialogue among scholars who share an interest in the unique theological problems inherent to the relationship between biblical interpretation and proclamation Preaching and the Personal opens a stimulating dialogue in the field Preaching Words John S. McClure,2007-01-01 John McClure s Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today s preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching The Calling from God Dr. Lowell Hardy,2018-05-11 The Calling from God shares an in depth analysis of various callings to individuals to preach from a biblical standpoint It comes in unique ways for each individual So the exact nature of the calling from God is difficult at best to describe for it does not lend itself to any private interpretation especially to someone not privy to the calling Within the text the reader will learn about the struggles of various people with God and within themselves All experiences are coercing demanding and cajoling for sure However the one called has to determine within oneself what Gods will is for him herself The Calling from God will serve as a guide to those seeking answers about their possible destiny The book takes the approach that many are called but only a few answer because of uncertainty The book will help one decide what to do based on their life changing experiences with the power of the Lord Jesus Christ The ones called must make sure of their calling for there is much to do since the harvest is great This book shows in detail some of the preparation needed as one grows in service to the calling from God All Christians are called by God the Father to be witnesses of his resurrection power by grace through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ For sure a call in any form lays a heavenly claim upon the one called This book helps one understand the calling from God and will help one reach a sound decision based on their life and experiences in comparison to selected biblical callings The Calling from God will serve a reference manual and a valuable source of information for anyone thinking about answering or has answered the call from God The decision to serve is very personal as you will learn from the book The Calling from God and many biblical examples If you are struggling with the decision to serve or not to serve this book is for you You will know after reading The Calling from God if you are one of the few chosen to serve and trust Gods wisdom in leading you to point others to the uplifted Christ Will you answer the call from God The alternative is to wrestle with the Spirit as conviction works slowly and agonizingly in the soul This book is a must read John A. Broadus David S. Dockery, Roger D. Duke, 2008 A new and much needed biography on legendary Baptist preacher educator and statesman John Broadus with contributions from David Dockery Timothy George Thomas J Nettles Mark Overstreet et al

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task Contributors include Ronald J Allen Professor of Preaching and Gospels and Letters at Christian Theological Seminary John S McClure Charles G Finney Professor of Preaching and Worship at Vanderbilt Divinity School Alyce M McKenzie George W and Nell Ayers Le Van Professor of Preaching and
