G. Shearman, 1972 The purpose of this monograph is to examine the many factors which led to the Cartoons and the tapestries assuming their present appearance factors as diverse as the characters of artist and patron the state of the Doctrine of the Keys the floor pattern of the chapel for which they were made or the composition and experience of the audience for which they were intended Catalogue of a Series of Original Designs, Cartoons and Drawings by the Great Masters of the Italian Schools of Art Esq. Dow, 2017-07-05 Focusing on artists and architectural complexes which until now have eluded scholarly attention in English language publications Apostolic Iconography and Florentine Confraternities in the Age of Reform examines through their art programs three different confraternal organizations in Florence at a crucial moment in their histories Each of the organizations that forms the basis for this study oversaw renovations that included decorative programs centered on the apostles At the complex of Ges Pellegrino a fresco cycle represents the apostles in their roles as Christ's disciples and proselytizers At the oratory of the company of Santissima Annunziata a series of frescoes shows their martyrdoms the terrible price the apostles paid for their mission and their faith At the oratory of San Giovanni Battista detta dello Scalzo a sculptural program of the apostles stood as an example to each confratello of how Christian piety had its roots in collective effort Douglas Dow shows that the emphasis on the apostles within these corporate groups demonstrates how the organizations adapted existing iconography to their own purposes He argues that their willful engagement with apostolic themes reveals the complex interaction between these organizations and the church's program of reform A Critical Account of the drawings by Michel Angelo and Raffaello in the University Galleries, Oxford, etc Sir John Charles ROBINSON, 1870 [Exhibition Book of Art ...
