complete texts became available after World War II Although Dvořák was often viewed as a nationalist composer in his symphonic writing his primary influences were Beethoven Schubert and Brahms For both Bruckner and Mahler the symphony constituted the heart of their output for Brahms and Dvořák it occupied a less central place Yet for all of them the key figure of the past remained Beethoven The symphonies of these four composers together with the works of Goldmark Zemlinsky Schoenberg Berg Smetana Fibich Janáček and others are treated in Volume IV The Second Golden Age of the Viennese Symphony covering the period from roughly 1860 to 1930 Music in Print Master Title Index, 1995 The Monthly Musical Record, 1898 Includes music The Book of World-famous Music James J. if it meets with the approval of an ideally qualified listener How do we explain differences of opinion Indeed why do we need to make judgements of the relative value of pieces of music at all This engaging and stimulating book will be of interest to students of aesthetics musical practitioners and the general reader looking for a non technical treatment of the subject
