The Organs of Sense Adam Ehrlich Sachs, 2019-05-21 This book is only for people who like joy, absurdity, passion, genius, dry wit, youthful folly, amusing historical arcana, or telescopes. Rivka Galchen, author of Little Labors and American Innovations. In 1666, an astronomer makes a prediction shared by no one else in the world: at the stroke of noon on June 30 of that year, a solar eclipse will cast all of Europe into total darkness for four seconds. This astronomer is rumored to be using the longest telescope ever built, but he is also known to be blind, and not only blind but incapable of sight, both his eyes having been plucked out some time before.

under mysterious circumstances Is he mad Or does he despite this impairment have an insight denied the other scholars of his day These questions intrigue the young Gottfried Leibniz not yet the world renowned polymath who would go on to discover calculus but a nineteen year old whose faith in reason is shaky at best Leibniz sets off to investigate the astronomer's claim and over the three hours remaining before the eclipse occurs or fails to occur the astronomer tells the scholar the haunting and hilarious story behind his strange prediction a tale that ends up encompassing kings and princes family squabbles obsessive pursuits insanity philosophy art loss and the horrors of war Written with a tip of the hat to the works of Thomas Bernhard and Franz Kafka The Organs of Sense stands as a towering comic fable a story about the nature of perception and the ways the heart of a loved one can prove as unfathomable as the stars

Bleeding in the Eye of a Brainstorm George C. Chesbro, 2017-10-31 Fans will want their Mongo prescriptions filled as the circus performer turned private eye uncaps some pharmaceutical monkey business. Booklist With a genius IQ, a past career as a circus acrobat and a black belt in karate, criminology professor Dr. Robert Frederickson, better known as Mongo the Magnificent, has a decidedly unusual background for a private investigator. He also just so happens to be a dwarf. On the eve of Thanksgiving, a murderous maniac with an ice pick has gripped New York City, killing at random and leaving terror in his wake. But despite the threat of the Iceman, Mongo is more troubled by the sudden appearance of the neighborhood crazy lady on his doorstep. Normally Mama Spit is as ornery as they come, but the polished and polite woman before him now bears little resemblance to the creature infamous for spewing vulgarity at everyone she meets. Mama claims a strange man gifted her with a bag of pills just before his untimely death, miracle pills that have made her as normal as the day is long. Soon Mongo blows the lid off a conspiracy involving experimental drugs, escaped mental patients, and a government cover-up. But if he isn't careful, he could hit his own expiration date. Bleeding in the Eye of a Brainstorm is the 13th book in the Mongo Mysteries, but you may enjoy reading the series in any order.
