has been made about how the New China has become an economic juggernaut in today's world while civil liberties and basic young What are they like When JoAnn Dionne arrived in Guangzhou she came prepared to live and teach elementary school in a Communist country She expected to see soldiers in the streets people in grey Mao suits and lineups to buy toilet paper Instead she found the world's oldest country throwing itself headlong into the future She found traffic jams and 24/7 constructions neon lights and smog shopping malls and modern high rises And then she met the people who would live in that future her students Along with crisp insights into Chinese culture as seen through the eyes of a North American Dionne
