

A black and white photograph of a coastal landscape. In the foreground, there are dark, jagged rocks along the shore. The middle ground shows a body of water with white foam from waves crashing against the rocks. In the background, there are several layers of mountains, with the closest ones being dark and the ones further away becoming increasingly hazy and light-colored, creating a sense of depth and atmosphere. The sky is bright and overcast.

You have touched my heart in so many ways with your gentle tenderness. I am lost forever in your love.

Art and Praise in Kierkegaard's Works of Love Richard McCombs, 2023-12-19 Since art is essential to the love of one's neighbor as oneself and to love's chief goal of building up one another we cannot understand love without also understanding its art Observing that praise is ubiquitous in Søren Kierkegaard's writings Richard McCombs interprets Kierkegaard's Works of Love as a eulogy of love's arts of forgiveness peace making and building up one's neighbor in maturity and charity Kierkegaard stresses love's ability to achieve results calling love irresistible and almost magical in overcoming obstacles to its purposes living the life of faith and love involves skillful attention to the specificity of the episodes in an individual's life and the creative imagining of new ways of enacting these virtues McCombs argues that Kierkegaard's ideas about the art of love reveal limits or exceptions to his individualism and to his anti-consequentialism in ethics Art and Praise in Kierkegaard's Works of Love explores Kierkegaard's distinct praises of love through texts like Works of Love The Brothers Karamazov and Middlemarch to illustrate complement and sometimes correct Kierkegaard's profound account of love's art and wisdom suggesting ways that the art of praise bears on other questions in aesthetics ethics and religion

Love and a bottle George Farquhar, 1892 Liahona, 1914 A Look of Poetry Connie Downey, 2005

Reflections into Someone's Life is a collection of old and new poems from one woman's travels through life to adulthood facing head on the things she'd rather ignore Most of her works were destroyed in a flood and only retrieved through memory Writing is what helped her get through many trials and tribulations of addiction and inadequacy in her lifetime It was one of the things that assisted in guiding her on when most things just didn't seem worth holding onto Struggling in her own mind to be accepted writing helped her to learn about herself as well as others For years it felt like a crutch but when she could help others with her writing it became a blessing then a passion and now a dream The beauty of time and writing is you eventually learn to come to terms with yourself and see the things that really do matter An enjoyable read it touches on many aspects of life with family friends and everyday outlooks
