So Big - An Edna Ferber Novel Edna Ferber, 2022-09-26 So Big is the Pulitzer Prize winning novel by masterful Algonquin Round Table writer Edna Ferber inspired by the incredible life of Dutch pioneer Antje Paarlberg A thoughtful gripping novel So Big follows the story of a young schoolteacher Selina Peake De Jong as she influences those around her to appreciate the beauty of art and understand its importance Her influence begins with her pupil Roelf Pool who demonstrates great artistic talent When tragedy strikes Roelf's life he runs away to France and Selina continues with her small farmwife duties She eventually has a son Dirk and when his father dies she gives up teaching so she can run the farm and provide for her small family Despite Selina and Dirk's struggles she never sacrifices art and encourages her son to share her interests But as he ages he begins to put money above artistic values With the sudden reappearance of Roelf now a famous sculptor will Dirk realise there is more to life than financial success First published in 1924 Edna Ferber's bestselling novel won the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction in 1925 So Big is an incredible book with a message just as prevalent today as it was 100 years ago Republished with an introduction from Rogers Dickinson this volume is a must read for lovers of Edna Ferber and fans of Jazz Age literature

So Big Edna Ferber, 2023-12-29 The story follows the life of a young woman Selina Peake De Jong who decides to be a school teacher in farming country During her stay on the Pool family farm she encourages the young Roelf Pool to follow his interests which include art Upon his mother's death Roelf runs away to France Meanwhile Selina marries a Dutch farmer named Pervus They have a child together Dirk whom she nicknames So Big Pervus dies and Selina is forced to take over working on the farm to give Dirk a future As Dirk gets older he works as an architect but is more interested in making money than creating buildings and becomes a stock broker much to his mother's disappointment. His love interest Dallas O'Mara, an acclaimed artist, tries to convince Dirk that there is more to life than money. Selina is visited by Roelf Pool, who has since become a famous sculptor. Dirk grows very distressed when, after visiting his mother's farm, he realizes that Dallas and Roelf love each other and he cannot compete with the artistically minded sculptor. The book was inspired by the life of Antje Paarlberg in the Dutch community of South Holland, Illinois, a Chicago suburb. It won the Pulitzer Prize for the Novel in 1925. So Big (Illustrated) Edna Ferber, 1924. This is the famous story of Selina who taught school in a community of hard-working farmers and thrifty wives and found beauty in cabbages. This is the story of her life and of that of her son through all the years of hardships during which she retained her gay unconquerable spirit. It is a novel of power, delicacy, and great understanding. Miss Ferber's vocabulary is rich and vital; she sees material objects with a penetrating and delightful vision; she has portrayed aspects of Chicago more vividly and with greater distinction than any writer I know; she knows the history of the development of Chicago in the industrial age and she is able to convey in a few words the import of that development; she can describe debutantes, shop girls, and stenographers; tell you how they dress, how they talk, what their working philosophy is, with illuminating flashes. Burton Rascoe, Winner of the 1924 Pulitzer Prize. So Big is widely regarded as Edna Ferber's crowning achievement. A rollicking panorama of Chicago's high and low life, this stunning novel follows the travails of gambler's daughter Selina Peake DeJong as she struggles to maintain her dignity, her family, and her sanity in the face of monumental challenges. This is the stunning and unforgettable novel to read and to remember by an author whose critics of the 1920s and 1930s did not hesitate to call the greatest American woman novelist of her day.
