

The book cover features a photograph of a plate of food. On the plate is a piece of golden-brown, flaky food, possibly a latke or a slice of pie, garnished with a small herb. Next to it is a salad of green leafy vegetables and sliced cucumbers. A silver fork is placed on the plate. In the background, there are glass bottles, likely containing oil or vinegar, and a blue cloth. The title 'SO THIS IS KOSHER' is written in large, gold, serif capital letters across the top half of the image.

Bower, 2012-08-06 Reel Food is the first book devoted to food as a vibrant and evocative element of film featuring original essays by major food studies scholars among them Carole Counihan and Michael Ashkenazi This collection reads various films through their uses of food from major food films like Babette s Feast and Big Night to less obvious choices including The Godfather trilogy and The Matrix The contributors draw attention to the various ways in which food is employed to make meaning in film In some cases such as Soul Food and Tortilla Soup for example food is used to represent racial and ethnic identities In other cases such as Chocolat and Like Water for Chocolate food plays a role in gender and sexual politics And of course there is also discussion of the centrality of popcorn to the movie going experience This book is a feast for scholars foodies and cinema buffs It will be of major interest to anyone working in popular culture film studies and food studies at both the undergraduate and graduate level      Sermon on the Mount Scot McKnight, 2013-10-29

Emphasizing the historical distance between the New Testament and our contemporary culture The Sermon on the Mount offers helpful contextual insights for those seeking to discern how to live out the Bible in today's world This sermon is the moral portrait of Jesus own people yet the contrast between his vision and our lives is so stark that many theologians have tried to soften the demands it makes on us until it's been skewed beyond recognition in the minds of many Christians The goal of this special volume of The Story of God Bible Commentary series is to investigate the Sermon on the Mount in light of the way Jesus meant it to be heard requiring us to ask difficult questions about ethics discipleship and salvation The first commentary series to do so SGBC offers a clear and compelling exposition of biblical texts guiding everyday readers in how to creatively and faithfully live out the Bible in their own contexts Its story centric approach is ideal for pastors students Sunday school teachers and laypeople alike Each volume employs three main easy to use sections designed to help readers live out God's story LISTEN to the Story Includes complete NIV text with references to other texts at work in each passage encouraging the reader to hear it within the Bible's grand story EXPLAIN the Story Explores and illuminates each text as embedded in its canonical and historical setting LIVE the Story Reflects on how each text can be lived today and includes contemporary stories and illustrations to aid preachers teachers and students Edited by Scot McKnight and Tremper Longman III and written by a number of top notch theologians The Story of God Bible Commentary series will bring relevant balanced and clear minded theological insight to any biblical education or ministry      Encyclopedia of Modern Jewish
