Recovering Benedict John Edward Crean, 2020-10-16 Recovering Benedict encourages us to nourish our physical and spiritual lives using the Rule of Benedict and the twelve step recovery principles of Alcoholics Anonymous. As the father of Western monasticism, Benedict pulled together various strands of monastic spirituality into a single handbook for holiness. Alcoholics Anonymous presented an equally innovative way to address alcoholism based on twelve steps drawn from numerous spiritual sources. While it took a sixth century Italian collating various sources to produce a handbook for spiritual life, it likewise took a twentieth century American to pull together the spiritual principles to recover one's physical life. John E. Crean Jr brings both traditions together in one handbook for living. Daily meditations are inspired by the down to earth wisdom of the Rule of Benedict and AA's template for sobriety and humbleness. A thoughtful daily devotional for all who wish for deeper healing for personal use or group study.

through prayer Addiction—God'S Healing Duly Noted,2018-02-21 I was just your run of the mill alcoholic who God saw fit to rescue For close to forty years I struggled with addiction and as time went on it always got worse quicker and got more intense after any period of clean time It was not until this unprofessional writer put God like I never had him before in my life and also after a proven twelve step program that I was able to get and stay sober one day at a time I was bankrupt in all ways financially emotionally mentally at times I couldn't remember my name and almost spiritually I turned a perfectly good life into a perfect mess by choice Why I ended up at a few homeless shelters Family and friends were asking begging me to get out of my hometown Buffalo New York because I was going to die as the whole city turned into a people places and things place that people are warned about in recovery Today I tell God people at recovery meetings family and friends I have the best life of anybody I know and I believe it God gets and deserves all the glory all the honor and all the praise that my family and friends give to me God blessed me with one grandchild daughter and another one on the way At recovery meetings they say Rarely have we seen a person fail who has thoroughly followed our path That is so true According to Matthew 6 33 Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added onto you Thank you God bless you Glenn
