Compiling an Annotated Bibliography James L. Harner,2015-01-01 James Harner s popular pamphlet first published in 1985 has been revised and updated in the light of advances in computer technology and the availability of humanities databases Harner offers useful information on planning research organizing an annotated bibliography compiling entries using a computer to prepare the manuscript and editing While the booklet focuses on the preparation of a comprehensive bibliography on a single literary author the procedures and techniques are easily adapted to selective or subject bibliographies and to other periods and disciplines Women and War Jean Bethke Elshtain,1995-07-15 Jean Elshtain examines how the myths of Man as Just Warrior and Woman as Beautiful Soul serve to recreate and secure women s social position as noncombatants and men s identity as warriors Elshtain demonstrates how these myths are undermined by the reality of female bellicosity and sacrificial male love as well as the moral imperatives of just wars Victorian writers and the city Université de Lille III. David J. Latt,Samuel Holt Monk,1976-04-12 John Dryden was first published in 1976 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions This annotated bibliography represents a comprehensive updating of Samuel Holt Monk's earlier work also published by the University of Minnesota Press John Dryden A List of Critical Studies Published from 1895 to 1948 out of print Since the publication of that earlier bibliography the number of studies devoted to Dryden has more than tripled and thus this new bibliography is essential for scholars of Dryden or related aspects of seventeenth and eighteenth century English literature This volume contains four times as many entries as the earlier volume and there is an extensive introduction by Professor Latt which surveys the historical shifts in critical opinion of Dryden The new volume incorporates all of the listings contained in the first one The entries include works that focus directly on Dryden those that discuss Dryden's works in the context of other writers and those that investigate material of general importance to Dryden studies Dissertations from American German English and French universities are included Complete bibliographic information is provided for virtually every entry The listings are grouped in nine categories and there is an additional section which covers Festschriften and other collections of essays Works of exceptional value and those which develop new points of view are so designated The publishing history of each item is included along with the standard bibliographic information The index includes topical as well as author entries

The Reprint Bulletin, 1969 The Terror and other Writings of Machen Arthur Machen, 2017-05-30 A master of horror in the early 20th century this writer covered a series of different horror topics and subjects of mystery as well These stories are the basis of many modern horror writers as he also influenced writers of his day such as Lovecraft and drew inspiration from writers like Stoker These stories will excite anyone that is new to his writing and those who want to revel in the glory of Machen's writings for a long time Annual Summaries Reprinted from the Times Times, 1893 Fiction of Imperialism Philip Darby, 1998-05-31 This book examines a range of fiction and criticism as it pertains to colonialism the North South engagement and contemporary Third World politics The Fiction of Imperialism attempts to promote dialogue between international relations and postcolonialism It addresses the value of fiction to an understanding of the imperial relationship between the West and Asia and Africa A wide range of fiction and criticism is examined as it pertains to colonialism in North South engagement and contemporary Third World politics The book begins by contrasting the treatment of cross cultural relations in political studies and literary texts It then examines the personal as a metaphor for the political in fiction depicting the imperial connection between Britain and India This is paired with an analysis of African literary texts which takes as its theme the relationship between culture and politics The concluding chapters approach literature from the outside considering its apparent silence on economics and realpolitik and assessing the utility of postcolonial reconceptualization Renewal of interest in imperialism and literary texts about imperialism Examines a range of fiction and criticism as it pertains to colonialism the North South engagement and contemporary Third World politics First volume in a new series which deals with the differences between culture and politics as well as in ways of seeing and the sources that can be drawn on Sotheran's Price Current of Literature Henry Sotheran Ltd, 1884

Stonewall Jackson and Religious Faith in Military Command Kenneth E. Hall, 2005-05-03 The relationship between war and religion is nothing new For millennia humankind has waged war over religion and derived religion from war It is not surprising then that military leadership and religious conviction frequently coincide This study documents the long tradition of the religious warrior in Western history and literature with a special focus on Civil War general Thomas J Stonewall Jackson It also provides a general survey of the religious antecedents of Jackson and other more modern American military heroes The book begins with an introduction to the Confederate general largely from the perspective of those who lived with and served under him whose testimonies attest to his courage initiative innate tactical talent deep religious faith and eccentric personal habits The author analyzes the extent to which Jackson's national zeal has elevated him to the status of a religious martyr remembered today within an epic frame of sainthood and heroism Concise comparisons are drawn between Jackson and his Old World predecessors including Ulrich Zwingli John Knox and Oliver Cromwell Similar associations are made between Jackson and such Civil War contemporaries as William Dorsey Pender and Oliver Otis Howard A chapter addressing the representation of Stonewall in modern Civil War literature and film particularly in the novel and subsequent motion picture Gods and Generals provides an insightful juxtaposition of Jackson's status among the gods of the Civil War and his own reverence for the God of his Presbyterian faith Guide to Reprints, 2005 The Emperor's New Clothes

Kathryn Flannery, 2010-11-23 Since the Renaissance what has been considered the best style of writing has always been connected with the dominant cultural agenda of the time In this book Kathryn Flannery offers a demystifying perspective on theorists who have argued for an essential distinction between content and style and focuses on the importance of understanding written prose style as a cultural asset She addresses the development of prose criticism the evolution of English teaching the history of Francis Bacon and Richard Hooker's writing and a modern discourse on stylistics

Catalogue of books belonging to the Society of Brothers in Unity; Yale College, Sept. 1832 Yale University. Society of Brothers in Unity, 1846 Tudor and Stuart Women Writers Louise Schleiner, 1994-11-22 a nuanced carefully argued work that reveals how women writers of the Renaissance whether upper class aristocrats close to court daughters of successful merchants Protestants or Catholics are inevitably affected by the gender biases that infuse all levels of Renaissance society and letters Sixteenth Century Journal quite effective at developing a critical vocabulary for analyzing the formal traits of early modern women's writing Tulsa Studies in Women's Literature From the perspectives of feminism Marxism sociology and cultural semiotics Louise Schleiner examines both familiar and obscure Tudor and Stuart women writers in a comprehensive study of those women who managed to go beyond translations or diaries and find a more individual voice in their public texts The National Union Catalogs, 1963- , 1964
