The Compassionate Mind Theological Dialog With The Educated:

The Compassionate Mind Donald L. Deffner, 1990-01-01 Encourages evangelism to the educated through the use of the modern literature Black Christians--the Untold Lutheran Story Jeff G. Johnson, 1991 Examines the breadth of the African American contribution to the Lutheran church Martin Luther Marilyn J. Harran, 1997 Covers Luther's impact on education from the Reformation to the present day Finding the Lost Kenneth E. Bailey, 1992 This book explores the intended meaning as well as the implications and applications of the three parables in Luke 15 The Good Shepherd and the Lost Sheep The Good Woman and the Lost Coin and The Good Father and His Two Lost Sons It reflects the author's immersion in the language religion and culture of the Middle East demonstrating how meaningful the biblical text becomes when a broad background of study and analysis is permitted to illuminate the text Western readers will gain an array of new insights from this volume and will be fascinated by the author's nuances of interpretation The author's analysis shows how the cultural background of Arabic and Muslim theology affects the interpretation of these parables Wisconsin Lutheran Quarterly, 1992 Windows Into the Lectionary Donald L. Deffner, 1996 The Cumulative Book Index, 1991 A world list of books in the English language Religion, Education, Dialogue and Conflict Robert Jackson, 2014-01-02 Religion Education Dialogue and Conflict analyses the European Commission funded REDCo project which addressed the question of how religions might contribute to dialogue or conflict in Europe Researchers in education from eight countries the UK Estonia France Germany the Netherlands the Russian Federation Norway and Spain studied how young Europeans of different religious cultural and political backgrounds could engage in dialogue in the context of the school Empirical studies conducted with 14-16 year old students included them offering their own perspectives and analyses of teaching and learning in both dialogue and conflict situations Although there were some different national patterns and trends most students wished for peaceful coexistence across differences and believed this to be possible The majority agreed that peaceful coexistence depended on knowledge about each other's religions and worldviews sharing common interests and doing things together The project found that students who learn about religious diversity in school are more willing to discuss religions and beliefs with students of other backgrounds than those who do not The international range of expert contributors to this book evaluate the results of the REDCo project providing examples of its qualitative and quantitative studies and reflecting on the methods and theory used in the project as a whole This book was originally published as a special issue of the British Journal of Religious Education Buddhist-Christian Dialogue, U.S. Law, and Womanist Theology for Transgender Spiritual Care Pamela Ayo Yetunde, 2020-04-30 This book written with hospital spiritual care providers in mind investigates how to expand the field and scope of compassion within the hospital context for the spiritual care and safety of transgender patients Written by a law educated pastoral counselor it advocates for chaplain legal literacy and explains the consequences of spiritual care providers not knowing more about the law It explores the current political and legal situation transgender hospital patients find themselves in and especially how these new policies put transgender people at risk when they are in a hospital setting Pamela Ayo Yetunde offers Buddhist Christian activist interreligious dialogue methods to promote deeper understanding of how spiritual practices can cultivate empathy for transgender patients Towards a Distinctive and Inclusive Theology of Catholic Education Studies Sean Whittle, 2025-08-29 Casting a light on one of the leading British scholars working in the field of Catholic Education Studies this edited volume scrutinises contemporary issues surrounding the scholarship of John Sullivan over the past three decades demonstrating the field's development under his scholarly influence Giving voice to many internationally established and leading Catholic education scholars chapters review and critically appraise the contribution of Sullivan's work in key areas such as his call for a coherent philosophy of Catholic education a broader more inclusive Catholic culture robust teacher formation and a coherent understanding of Catholic higher education The book also discusses the interplay between the pastoral and the prophetic two complementary aspects that underpin much of Sullivan's work Ultimately posing questions for how Catholic educators can and should build on Sullivan's foundational legacy this book will appeal to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of religious education history of education and Catholic educational studies more broadly
