relishes a great deathbed scene the speaking corpse who fancies a good haunting and the departing lover who delights in a dramatic exit Focusing primarily on American and British poetry written during the past two centuries Fuss maintains that poetry can still offer genuine ethical compensation even for the deep wounds and shocking banalities of modern death As dying loss and grief become ever more thoroughly obscured from public view the dead start chattering away in verse Through bold original interpretations of little known works as well as canonical poems by writers such as Emily Dickinson Randall Jarrell Elizabeth Bishop Richard Wright and Sylvia Plath Fuss explores modern poetry's fascination with pre and postmortem speech pondering the literary desire to make death speak in the face of its cultural silencing Youth in the Third Millennium Carlos Miguel Buela, 2014-01-10 This book by Father Carlos Miguel Buela IVE is directed towards those young people who are the main protagonists and builders of the third millennium Living in the 21st century is considered both a great gift and a difficult challenge In these pages Father Buela writes why being a youth in the third millennium is such an adventure Amidst the uncertainties and difficulties plaguing young minds Father Buela encourages youth equipped with the truths and pillars of the Catholic faith to live great ideals and experience the beauty and joy of God in the present world In the midst of turbulent seas a Captain cries Duc in Altum Go into deep waters Few know what this phrase really means Those who have been able to understand it know what the secret to true authentic happiness is eternity Catalog
