The Anthology of English Folk Tales Folk Tales Authors,2016-11-03 This enchanting collection of stories gathers together folk tales from across England in one special volume Drawn from The History Press popular Folk Tales series herein lies a treasure trove of tales from a wealth of talented storytellers performing in the country today including prominent figures Taffy Thomas MBE Hugh Lupton and Helen East From hidden chapels and murderous vicars to travelling fiddlers and magical shape shifters this book celebrates the distinct character of England s different customs beliefs and dialects and is a treat for all who enjoy a good yarn Lakeland Folk Tales for Children Taffy Thomas MBE,2016-10-03 Did you know that if you look closely around Scafell Pike in the winter you might find a great dragon Or that hidden in the forest around Egremont you might catch a glimpse of the fabled fairy folk What you don t believe me Read these tales then take a look for yourself This collection is full of stories that Taffy has told over the years and that children love to hear time and again Including a gang of smugglers and an ugly face pulling competition not only will children love to read them or listen to them being read the tales will also stimulate an interest in the area and help children engage with their own surroundings wherever they live Crusading and Warfare in the Middle Ages Simon John,Nicholas Morton,2016-04-22 This volume has been created by scholars from a range of disciplines who wish to show their appreciation for Professor John France and to celebrate his career and achievements For many decades Professor France s work has been instrumental in many of the advances made in the fields of crusader studies and medieval warfare He has published widely on these topics including major publications such as Victory in the East A Military History of the First Crusade 1994 and Western Warfare in the Age of the Crusades 1999 This present volume mirrors his interests offering studies upon both areas The fifteen essays cover a wide variety of topics spanning chronologically from the Carolingian period through to the early fourteenth century Some offer new insights upon long contested issues such as the question of whether a new form of cavalry was created by Charles

Martel and his successors or the implications of the Mongol defeat at Ayn Jalut Others use innovative methodologies to unlock the potential of various types of source material including manuscript illuminations depicting warfare Templar graffiti German crusading songs and crusading charters Several of the articles open up new areas of debate connected to the history of crusading Malcolm Barber discusses why Christendom did not react decisively to the fall of Acre in 1291 Bernard Hamilton explores how the rising Frankish presence in the Eastern Mediterranean during the central medieval period reshaped Christendom's knowledge and understanding of the North African cultures they encountered In this way this work seeks both to advance debate in core areas whilst opening new vistas for future research "Moult a sans et vallour"

,2012-01-01 William W Kibler is one of the most productive and versatile medievalists of his generation Some scholars and students think of him primarily as a specialist in the medieval epic whereas others consider him to be an Arthurian scholar He is of course both but he is also much more a consummate philologist and editor of texts and also a prolific and accomplished translator Above all those who know him best know him as an extraordinarily generous and modest man The present volume represents an effort by thirty medievalists specialists in fields as diverse as William Kibler's interests to indicate our respect for him aptly described in the foreword as scholar teacher friend The Tragic Death of Eleanor
