Women's Representation in African Politics

Zainab Monisola Olaitan, 2024-12-11

Does the election of more and more women into political offices mean that women's interests will be better protected? This question forms the background upon which this book is written as it forms a timely intervention concerning the clamour for increased women's representation in African politics. The book examines the relationship between gender quotas and gender focused legislative policy outcomes in the national Parliaments of South Africa and Botswana. By investigating the utility of gender quotas to ensure the substantive representation of women in African politics, the book engages the assumption that increased women's political participation will automatically improve the qualitative well being of African women. The book is intended for both academic and non academic audiences with differing purposes. It contributes to scholarly debates on the transcending relevance of quotas beyond numbers. For non academics it provides opportunities to engage gender quotas as a policy tool to ensure the qualitative well being of African women.

The Implementation of Quotas

Julie Ballington, 2004

This report examines women's political representation on the African continent and shows how quotas have contributed to increasing their access to political power. The documented evidence from Africa is very encouraging: more than 20 countries on the continent either have legislated quotas or have political parties that have adopted them voluntarily. This report details the different quota types that are being implemented in different political contexts in 17 countries including the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Egypt, Morocco, Mozambique, Namibia, Rwanda, Senegal, South Africa, Tanzania, and Uganda.

Power, Gender and Social Change in Africa

Raj Bardouille, Margaret Grieco, 2009-03-26

Gender plays a hugely significant and too often under considered role in predicting how accessible resources such as education, wage based employment, physical and mental health care, adequate nutrition and housing will be to an individual or community. According to a 2001 World Bank report titled Engendering Development Through Gender Equality in Rights, Resources and Voice, enormous disparities exist between men and women in terms of basic rights and the power to determine the future both in Africa and around the globe. A better understanding of the links between gender, public policy and development outcomes would allow for more effective policy formulation and implementation at many levels This book through its discussion of the challenges achievements and lessons learned in efforts to attain gender equality sheds light on these important issues The book contains chapters from an interdisciplinary group of scholars including sociologists economists political scientists scholars of law anthropologists historians and others The work includes analysis of strategic gender initiatives case studies research and policies as well as conceptual and theoretical pieces With its format of ideas resources and recorded experiences as well as theoretical models and best practices the book is an important contribution to academic and political discourse on the intricate links between gender power and social change in Africa and around the world

Politics and Public Policy Barbara Wejnert, 2012-12-17 This volume highlights the ways in which scholarly analysis has contributed to a rich understanding of the links between spreading democracy gender equality and environmental protection It includes cutting edge debates on the meaning of democracy and its development as well as the response of democracies to environmental and gender concerns

Governing in a Global World Maria J. D'Agostino, Marilyn Marks Rubin, 2017-11-28 Governing in a Global World captures the panorama of women governing around the world Even though the modern era marks history's greatest advancements for women worldwide they hold fewer than 30 percent of decision making positions and are often missing from negotiating tables where policies are made and conflicts resolved The opening chapters present trends and context for studying women in public service by focusing on path setters across the globe the status of women in the world's executive and legislative bodies and their participation in public service across several nations Later chapters examine power leadership and representation of women in public service with several chapters looking at women governing from a regional perspective in the Middle East Sub Sahara Africa Latin America and China The final chapter presents empirical evidence that shows how policies to increase women's representation in the public arena reduce gender inequality more than any other policy intervention Taken together the chapters illustrate the worldwide importance of and challenges to promoting gender equality and women governing

Hope, Pain & Patience Friederike Bubenzer, Orly Stern, 2011 As in many post conflict countries the roles played by women during Sudan's long lasting liberation struggle continue to go unrecognised Thousands of women joined the southern liberation struggle in response to a political situation that affected whole communities leaving the comfort and security of their homes not just to accompany their husbands but to fight for freedom democracy equity justice rights and dignity As well as playing roles in the fighting women acted as mothers teachers and nurses and filled numerous other roles during the war The long standing struggle for the liberation of South Sudan severely altered traditional gender roles as well as the societal structure as a whole Women also suffered during the war An increase in HIV hunger and violence particularly sexual violence characterised their lives in Sudan as well as in exile for many years Life in the post conflict period continues to be challenging as women try to carve out a meaningful life in a tenuous peace This volume documents the lives of different groups of women in South Sudan It seeks to understand the contributions made by a range of women both during the conflict and today It describes the women of South Sudan who they are what they have experienced what they hope and feel what they experienced in the war and whether the end of the war has brought meaningful change Back cover Gendering Global Transformations Chima J. Korie, Philomina E Okeke-Ihejirika, 2008-11-19 The authors collected in Gendering Global Transformations Gender Culture Race and Identity probe the effects of global and local forces in reshaping notions of gender race class identity human rights and community across Africa and its Diaspora The essays in this unique collection employ diverse interdisciplinary approaches drawing from subjects such as history sociology religion anthropology gender studies feminist studies in an effort to centralize gender as a category of analysis in developing critical perspectives in a globalizing world From this approach come a host of exciting insights and subtle analyses that serve to illuminate the effects of issues such as international migration globalization and cultural continuities among diaspora communities on the articulation of women s agency community organization and identity formation at the local and the global level Bringing together the voices of scholars from Africa Europe and the United States Gendering Global Transformations Gender Culture Race and Identity offers a multi national and wholly original perspective on the intricacies of life in a globalized era Women and Political Inequality in Japan Mikiko Eto, 2020-12-17 Why are there so few Japanese women involved in the political system In 2019 Japanese women made up 10% of the national Lower House 21% of the Upper House and 14% of local assemblies According to the Inter Parliamentary Union this places Japan 164th out of 193 countries when it comes to women s representation in the legislature The percentage of women in the Lower House has only increased by fewer than two percentage points since women gained full suffrage and the right to stand for election in Japan in 1946 Eto analyses the various factors that have led to women s low presence in the Japanese legislature She evaluates ways in which it might be possible for Japan to catch up and in doing so examines how Japanese society continues to perpetuate gender rigid expectations of people This text is a valuable study for scholars of Japanese politics and society and for readers with an interest in the broader issue of the representation of women in politics Québécoises et représentation parlementaire Manon Tremblay, 2024-05-29T00:00:00-04:00 Cet ouvrage traite d une id e et d un probl me la repr sentation politique qui constitue une id e charni re aux sciences politiques une id e toutefois vici e par un probl me au fondement de sa conceptualisation m me soit celui de l exclusion des femmes de la politique Wahlsysteme und Wahltypen Claudia Derichs, Thomas Heberer, 2007-10-24 In diesem Band widmen sich 14 AutorInnen aus vergleichender politikwissenschaftlicher Perspektive der Frage von Bedeutung und Deutung von Wahlen weltweit Leitend ist f r die AutorInnen des Bandes die Erkenntnis aus der j ngeren Wahlsystemforschung dass eine Aufgabe heute gerade darin besteht die jeweiligen Kontexte n her zu bestimmen in denen Wahlen stattfinden und innerhalb derer Wahlsysteme eine bestimmte Wirkung entfalten Es gilt Abschied zu nehmen von vormalig als universal betrachteten indes eindimensional und h ufig monokausal gefassten Theorien Die Theoriediskussion erfordert eine st rkere Ber cksichtigung des
