Inflatable Kayaking: A Beginner's Guide Chris

Scott, 2021-04-06 There has been an explosion of interest in paddling right across the world in 2020 British Canoeing reported a 40% rise in members with 19 000 signing up in a 3 month period Much of this interest has been in inflatable kayaks with the author's own website inflatablekayaksandpackrafts.com averaging 1 000 visits a day The comparatively low cost the convenience of inflatable kayaks and the fact that you can just get in and go all add up to their appeal And with thousands of miles of waterways in the UK most are within reach of a river or canal where you can paddle your kayak and enjoy being in the fresh air gently travelling through the natural world You see the country from a different perspective and in an eco friendly way But as with everything a little bit of knowledge and technique makes the experience so much more enjoyable That is where this book comes in It provides a perfect introduction to the sport It takes you through the different types of inflatable kayaks so you buy the one that is right for you It shows you the basics on the water skills that you will need including getting in and out how to paddle straight and turn It outlines the gear you will need and talks about where to paddle as well as weather safety maintenance and repair of your equipment It covers kayaking in rivers and canals lakes and lochs and coastal kayaking All aspects are heavily illustrated with colour photographs making it easy to understand and clear to follow

Inflatable Kayaking: A Beginner's Guide Chris Scott, 2021-04-06 A perfect introduction to inflatable kayaking describing the different types of IKs before showing you the on the water skills to enjoy your kayaking It covers the gear you'll need and how to maintain and repair it It explains where you can kayak and how to do so safely You'll love getting out in the fresh air and paddling at one with nature

J.L.M. Bierens,2006-02-08 by Jan Carel van Dorp The board of Governors of the Maatschappij tot Redding van Drenkelingen is happy to introduce this congress book the fruit of much effort in recent years of many devoted researchers in the fields of prevention rescue and treatment of drowned people It is a compilation of the results of their successful studies as laid down during the World Congress on Drowning held in Amsterdam on 26 28 June 2002 Background Through the ages death by drowning like so many other causes was accepted as a part of life Water brings life water takes life burial follows It was not until the 17 or even as late as the 18 century that it became apparent that people could be effectively rescued by bystanders that many seemingly dead drowning victims only died after burial and that some of them could have been saved from this fate had they received medical attention In Europe it was the so called Age of Enlightenment with changing attitudes towards fellow man and social initiatives underway including the founding of charitable societies At that time three noblemen in Amsterdam realised that too many victims who had fallen in the waters of Amsterdam were left to their fate and died Hence in 1767 they founded a society for the rescue of drowning victims de Maatschappij tot Redding van Drenkelingen Their initiative was widely applauded In the years that followed other cities in Holland started their own initiatives
