The International Sourcebook On Capital Punishment 1997 International Sourcebook On Capital Punishment:

The International Sourcebook on Capital Punishment Center for Capital Punishment Studies, London, 1997 An indispensable reference and research tool for capital punishment scholars Capital Punishment: New Perspectives Peter Hodgkinson, 2016-04-08 This collection asks questions about the received wisdom of the debate about capital punishment Woven through the book questions are asked of and remedies proposed for a raft of issues identified as having been overlooked in the traditional discourse It provides a long overdue review of the disparate groups and strategies that lay claim to abolitionism The authors argue that capital litigators should use their skills challenging the abuses not just of process but of the conditions in which the condemned await their fate namely prison conditions education leisure visits medical services etc In the aftermath of successful constitutional challenges it is the beneficiaries arguably those who are considered successes having been saved from the death penalty and now serving living death penalties of one sort or another who are suffering the cruel and inhumane alternative Part I of the book offers a selection of diverse nuanced examinations of death penalty phenomena scrutinizing complexities frequently omitted from the narrative of academics and activists It offers a challenging and comprehensive analysis of issues critical to the abolition debate Part II offers examinations of countries usually absent from academic analysis to provide an understanding of the status of the debate locally with opportunities for wider application Capital Punishment Michael Kronenwetter, 2001-12-07 This revised edition of a perennial bestseller with more than 50 percent new material is a much needed overview of a hotly debated topic Capital Punishment focuses on the use of the death penalty in the United States its international status and how foreign developments affect the country It includes a history a discussion of the controversies surrounding the death penalty updated biographical sketches and statistics Key documents include the U S Supreme Court decision affirming capital punishment a key dissent Charles Dickens 19th century view of the guillotine and various papal and European Union decrees It also includes a chronology organizations websites with further information and an annotated bibliography In this updated survey a thorough overview of capital punishment author Michael Kronenwetter reveals interesting facts for example under Roman law death was the penalty for publishing insulting songs and disturbing the city's peace The Death Penalty in Africa Aimé Muyobo Karimunda, 2016-03-16 Human development is not simply about wealth and economic well being it is also dependent upon shared values that cherish the sanctity of human life Using comparative methods archival research and quantitative findings this book explores the historical and cultural background of the death penalty in Africa analysing the law and practice of the death penalty under European and Asian laws in Africa before independence Showing progressive attitudes to punishment rooted in both traditional and modern concepts of human dignity Aim Muyobo Karimunda assesses the ground on which the death penalty is retained today Providing a full and balanced appraisal of the arguments the book presents a clear and compelling case for the total abolition of the death penalty throughout Africa This book is essential reading for human rights lawyers legal anthropologists historians political analysts and anyone else interested in promoting democracy and the protection of fundamental human rights in Africa

The Death Penalty in America Hugo Adam Bedau, 1998-05-28 In The Death Penalty in America Current Controversies Hugo Adam Bedau one of our preeminent scholars on the subject provides a comprehensive sourcebook on the death penalty making the process of informed consideration not only possible but fascinating as well No mere revision of the third edition of The Death Penalty in America which the New York Times praised as the most complete well edited and comprehensive collection of readings on the pros and cons of the death penalty this volume brings together an entirely new selection of 40 essays and includes updated statistical and research data recent Supreme Court decisions and the best current contributions to the debate over capital punishment From the status of the death penalty worldwide to current attitudes of Americans toward convicted killers from legal arguments challenging the constitutionality of the death penalty to moral arguments enlisting the New Testament in support of it from controversies over the role of race and class in the judicial system to proposals to televise executions Bedau gathers readings that explore all the most compelling aspects of this most compelling issue

The Abolition of the Death Penalty in International Law William Schabas, 2002-09-05 This is the 2002 third edition of William A Schabas s highly praised study of the abolition of the death penalty in international law Extensively revised to take account of developments in the field since publication of the second edition in 1997 the book details the progress of the international community away from the use of capital punishment discussing in detail the abolition of the death penalty within the United Nations human rights system international humanitarian law European human rights law and Inter American human rights law New chapters in the third edition address capital punishment in African human rights law and in international criminal law An extensive list of appendices contains many of the essential documents for the study of capital punishment in international law The Abolition of the Death Penalty in International Law is introduced with a Foreword by Judge Gilbert Guillaume President of the International Court of Justice

The Death Penalty in Africa: Foundations and Future Prospects A. Novak, 2014-04-16 In recent years the death penalty has sharply declined across Africa but this trend belies actual public opinion and the retributivist sentiments held by political elites This study explains capital punishment in Africa in terms of culturally specific notions of life and death as well as the colonial era imposition of criminal and penal policy

Homicide Bal K. Jerath, Rajinder Jerath, Vandna K. Jerath, 2001 It is an indispensable tool for scholars interested in homicide and related issues such as capital punishment David Lester Ph D Professor of Psychology Richard Stockton College of New Jersey It is the most complete compendium of homicide research I have ever seen J Reid Meloy Ph D Assoc Clinical Professor of Psychiatry University of California San Diego This book is a very worthwhile one to have for anyone who is seriously interested in learning more about the field of homicide Kathleen M Heide Ph D University of South Florida Tampa

Professor of Criminology should be of particular interest to colleges and universities with studies in this respect of the social psychological criminal and health sciences Lyn Dennison M L AHIP Assistant Director for Library Operations Greenblatt Library Medical College of Georgia a peerless compendium of the latest research on homicide I recommend this work to anyone who is involved in study of homicide Wade C Meyers M D Associate Professor and Chief Division of Forensic Psychiatry Departments of Psychiatry University of Florida acquisition of this remarkable reference is highly recommended to schools colleges and public libraries Docteur Michel Benezech Chef de Service Ancien Professeur Associe en Medecine Legal Professeur Associe de Droit Prive a l Universite de Bordeau IV Homicide A Bibliography is a valuable book for everyone involved with teaching and research in the field of forensic sciences Niuvanniemen Sairaala Department of Forensic Psychiatry University of Kuopio Niuvanniemen Hospital FIN 70240 Kuopio Finland Federal Probation ,1997 Human Rights Manual and Sourcebook for Africa Keir Starmer,Theodora A. Christou,2005 At a time when the issue of human rights in Africa is making many advances Human Rights Sourcebook and Manual for Africa introduces easy to use jurisprudence The first section covers key principles and human rights norms which are detailed in straightforward language The second section is devoted to the death penalty detailing the relevant provisions from both international and regional instruments and offering a comparative commentary as to how the principles and relevant rights relate to the death penalty The third section summarizes key case law from international regional and domestic African courts and tribunals The case summaries detail the facts and decisions and include a headnote of relevant concepts for quick reference The fourth section focuses on thirteen African countries yet the reports are a useful comparative resource for all countries From conducting the research and compiling the material for this final section it is apparent that nothing like this has been attempted before in Africa Much of the work emanates from primary research and investigation conducted by local research teams in the individual countries Investigative research includes visiting prisons physically counting the individuals on death row and interviewing the detainees to obtain their age and the length of time they had been on death row Hidden Victims Susan F. Sharp,2005 Annotation In the US murderers particularly those sentenced to death are usually considered as entirely different from the rest of us Sociologist Susan F Sharp challenges perspective by reminding us that those facing a death sentence in addition to being murderers are brothers or sisters mothers or fathers daughters or sons Sentencing and Sanctions in Western Countries Michael H. Tonry,Richard S. Frase,2001 11 The Project of Sentencing Reform Sentencing and Sanctions in Western Countries Michael Tonry Director of the Institute of Criminology University of Cambridge,Richard Frase Director of the Institute of Criminology University of Minnesota Law School,2001-03-12 This collection of original essays surveys the evolution of sentencing policies and practices in Western countries over the past twenty five years Contributors address plea bargaining community service electronic monitoring standards of use of incarceration and legal perspectives on sentencing policy developments among other topics Sentencing and Sanctions in Western Countries provides a range of scholars and students excellent cross national knowledge of sentencing laws and practices when and why they have changed over time and with what effects

Capital Punishment C. Cliff, 2000 Capital punishment the death penalty has enjoyed wide public support in the United States as the penalty of choice for one member of society taking the life of another This viewpoint is not shared by most European governments perhaps because their murder rate is considerably lower DNA testing however has begun to shed light not on the appropriateness of the penalty but on the vastly imperfect system of what is jocularly termed justice DNA evidence has overturned case after case resulting in a seashift in public opinion This book examines current statutes dealing with the death penalty and presents a detailed bibliography on the topics with access provided by subject and author indexes

Beyond Repair? Stephen P. Garvey, 2003 Essays offer a new challenge to the death penalty's legitimacy in light of new empirical research and case studies and against the backdrop of international law and recent changes in U S domestic law

Determinants of the Death Penalty Carsten Ankar, 2004-08-02 This global study uses statistical analysis to relate the popularity of the death penalty to physical cultural social economical institutional actor oriented and historical factors

The Death Penalty Today Robert M. Bohm, 2017-11-13 More than 30 years after the US Supreme Court reinstated the death penalty it is still plagued with egregious problems Issues of wrongful conviction inhumane practices and its efficacy as a deterrent are hotly debated topics As of August 2007 two thirds of the world's countries have abolished the death penalty Today the US falls alongside I

Changing Contours of Criminal Justice Mary Bosworth, Carolyn Hoyle, Lucia Zedner, 2016-11-03 Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Oxford Centre for Criminology this edited collection of essays seeks to explore the changing contours of criminal justice over the past half century and to consider possible shifts over the next few decades The question of how social science disciplines develop and change does not invite any easy answer with the task made all the more difficult given the highly politicised nature of some subjects and the volatile evolving status of its institutions and practices A case in point is criminal justice at once fairly parochial much criminal justice scholarship is now global in its reach and subject areas that are now accepted as central to its study victims restorative justice security privatization terrorism citizenship and migration to name just a few were topics unknown to the discipline half a century ago Indeed most criminologists would have once stoutly denied that they had anything to do with it Likewise some central topics of past criminological attention like probation have largely receded from academic attention and some central criminal justice institutions like Borstal and corporal punishment have at least in Europe been abolished Although the rapidity and radical nature of this change make it quite impossible to predict what criminal justice will look like in fifty years time reflection on such developments may assist in understanding how it arrived at its current form and hint at what the future holds The contributors to this volume have been invited to reflect on the impact Oxford criminology has had on the discipline providing a unique and critical discussion about the current state of criminal justice around the world and the origins and future implications of contemporary practice All are leading internationally
