A Desktop Guide for Nonprofit Directors, Officers, and Advisors Jack B. Siegel, 2006-05-11 How to keep any nonprofit out of trouble running smoothly and accomplishing its mission Jack Siegel lawyer accountant management consultant and computer whiz takes the putative director or officer of a nonprofit organization on a useful and often entertaining voyage throughout the realm of the tax exempt organizations universe pointing out its quirks foibles and legal liabilities along the way His handbook will make mandatory and arresting reading for those who are already serving as trustees directors officers and key employees of exempt organizations particularly charitable ones Siegel's goal in which he succeeds is to help directors and officers of nonprofit organizations make better decisions The book is full of large policy analyses and paragraphs on the details such as board size board committees board meeting formats the contents of minutes and the duties of officers Salted with some excellent real life examples what also sets this book apart from most in its genre is the tone the writing style the brusqueness the bluntness He complains that too many directors check their good judgment at the boardroom door He advises individuals who desire agreement and demand adulation to stay off boards he insists on commitment and institutional tension with the executive director He warns prospective directors that some organizations want in addition to time and judgment either your money or your ability to raise money To my delight he extols the virtues of some level of expenditures for qualified lawyers and accountants Please join me in adding this most helpful handbook to your nonprofit library Bruce R Hopkins Attorney at Law author of The Law of Tax Exempt Organizations Eighth Edition and Starting and Managing a Nonprofit Organization A Legal Guide Fourth Edition The Company Director's Desktop Guide David M. Martin, 2007 This is the best selling practical guide for company directors fully updated to reflect the new Companies Act The new Companies Act is the longest Act ever and has wide ranging implications for directors of all companies large and small public and private The Act received Royal Assent in November 2006 there is a transition period and it will come fully into force in 2008 but all company directors need to grasp the significant changes to the law now This new edition covers all the changes made by the Act with guidance on their implications for directors and action to be taken Major changes include directors need to be very aware of some crucial changes to the law which significantly increase their liabilities eg previously a director could not be liable for a wrong decision if made in good faith now shareholders can instigate legal action against any director for any action or omission which in their opinion has damaged the company Thorogood Desktop Guides are a practical source of reference guidance techniques and best practice packed with checklists charts do s and don ts summaries special tips and case studies The Finance and Accounting Desktop Guide Ralph Tiffin, 2007 Understanding finance and applying techniques for financial control are essential for successful management yet in many cases key financial and accounting tools are either unknown or unsuccessfully applied This Desktop Guide provides a clear practical guide to all aspects of accountancy financial and business literacy for English companies The Company Director's Desktop Guide David M. Martin, 2016 Fire Risk Allan Grice, 2009 Fire safety regulations have undergone their most significant change for over thirty years and owners of companies employers builders and landlords in UK face a seismic shift in liabilities and potential penalties The responsibility for the safety of occupants and premises now lies with owners and employers This invaluable new book draws on over thirty years of professional fire fighting rescue and safety enforcement experience to provide a jargon free practical guide to current liabilities and compliance
