Buying for the Home Margaret Ponsonby, 2017-03-02 Buying for the Home is a book about the experiences and also the polarities of shopping and the home It analyses the ways in which the agencies and discourses of the retail environment mesh with the processes of physical and imaginative re-creation that constitute the domestic space teasing out the negotiations and interactions that mediate this key arena The study examines how the strategies of retailers were both arbitrated by and negotiated through the actions and desires of the homemaker as consumer Drawing on the recent CHORD Centre for the History of Retail and Distribution colloquium on shopping and the domestic environment and including two specially commissioned pieces the book draws on a wide selection of interdisciplinary work from established scholars and new researchers Organised around four key themes retail arenas and the everyday identity and lifestyle fashioning domestic space and cultural practice the ten case studies cover a range of cultural encounters and locations from the seventeenth to the late twentieth century Through these interdisciplinary but linked case studies Buying for the Home forces us to consider the fractured space that existed between the world of goods and the middle and working class home and in so doing interrogate how middle class and plebeian homemakers view imagine and ultimately occupy their domestic spaces in early modern modern and post modern society Guide to Reprints ,2008
