The Aging Gap Between Species Anca Ioviță, 2016-12-18 Aging is a puzzle to solve This process is traditionally studied in a couple of biological models like fruit flies worms and mice What all these species have in common is their fast aging This is excellent for lab budgets It is a great short term strategy Who has time to study species that live for decades But lifespan differences among species are magnitudes of order larger than any lifespan variation achieved in the lab This is the reason for which I studied countless information resources in an attempt to gather highly specialized research into one easy to follow book I wanted to see the forest among the trees I wanted to expose the aging gap between species in an easy to follow and logical sequence This book is my attempt at doing just that What are the mechanisms underlying the aging gap between species I intentionally chose to write the answer to this question in plain English Aging research is too important to hide it behind the closed doors of formal scientific jargon This book could not have existed if green tea libraries and the Internet were not invented The amount of data I had to browse in order to keep the essential patterns is huge Yet this book is not exhaustive This is not a dry academic textbook I tried to instill life in a topic that is hugely important for the extension of human lifespan Only you can decide if I achieved this TABLE OF CONTENTS Finding the Forest Among the Trees Being Reliable Counts The Mathematics of Aging The Speed of Senescence Case Study Aging in Fish How to Estimate

Ageing a boon or a bane Prof. P.K. Ray, 2017-07-21 Life and death are the two important phases of our lives. The transition from young to old takes place automatically but in different phases. We sometimes feel it, face it, and many times we have to pay dearly for being ignorant of what is happening to our body, what we need to do, and when. This book brings to you a wealth of information on what you must know to live a long happy life. Ageless Andrew Steele, 2021-03-23 A fascinating look at how scientists are working to help doctors treat the aging process itself, helping us all to lead longer healthier lives. Sanjay Gupta MD Aging not cancer not heart disease is the underlying cause of most human death and suffering. The same cascade of biological changes that renders us wrinkled and gray also opens the door to dementia and disease. We work furiously to conquer each individual disease but we never think to ask, Is aging itself necessary? Nature tells us it is not; there are tortoises and salamanders who are spry into old age and whose risk of dying is the same no matter how old they are, a phenomenon known as biological immortality. In Ageless Andrew Steele charts the astounding progress science has made in recent years to secure the same for humans to help us become old without getting frail, to live longer without ill health or disease.
