for protection handled their own security concerns via complex social mechanisms that tied together locals and absentee landlords in an uneasy relationship of mutual dependency By examining the fissures in this relationship in the form of akut complaints Oxenboell shows that violent activism was part of the daily management of estates and that such conflicts do not indicate an absence of order but rather a system of checks and balances that helped create a vibrant society A Study of Criminal Proceeding Conventions in Tang Dynasty Xi Chen,2022-01-01 This book uses the monographic study of litigation subjects prosecution trial and enforcement to reveal the formation operation and development of criminal proceeding conventions in the Tang Dynasty It also outlines the combination coordination and interaction of rules conventions and ideas in the traditional Chinese legal system and presents an overview of the evolution and development of traditional litigation in China This book is intended mainly for scholars and graduate and undergraduate students in the fields of law and Chinese history Message from the President of the United States, Transmitting, in Response to Senate Resolution of May 17, 1881, a Report of the Secretary of State, with Accompanying Papers, Touching the Geneva Convention for the Relief of the Wounded in War United States.
