The Impressionists Diary 1990:

Impressionism in Britain Kenneth McConkey, Anna Gruetzner Robins, 1995-01-01 Late in his career Claude Monet returned to London to paint the fog that had entranced him years before The resulting sequence of pictures represents some of the fascination that French painters felt for Britain Similarly many British collectors and young painters embraced and were influenced by the work of the French Impressionists This book describes the activities of the French Impressionist painters on their visits to Britain considers the dissemination of Impressionist painting through British dealers and collectors explores the response of artists from Britain and Ireland to the Impressionist movement and sets all of these against the backdrop of late Victorian and Edwardian Britain McConkey and Robins describe the work of Monet Pissarro Sisley and other Impressionists working in London showing how this art influenced the community of young British painters disenchanted with British art schools and art exhibiting standards The authors investigate the role played by two innovative painters who were American expatriates James McNeill Whistler and John Singer Sargent And they explain how such artists as William Orpen George Clausen Stanhope Forbes Henry La Thangue Walter Sickert and Philip Wilson Steer sought out new and radical approaches to picture making formed new secessionist art societies and articulated new concepts of the role of art rejecting historical pageants and fashionable aestheticism and focusing on modern rural and urban conditions The book is the catalogue of an exhibition that will be at the Barbican Art Gallery in London from January to March 1995 and then move to Dublin

An American Impressionist Deborah Epstein Solon, 2005 Intended as the companion art book to a travelling exhibition An American Impressionist The Art And Life Of Alson Skinner Clark is the first in depth scrutiny of the American Impressionist painter Alson Skinner Clark 1876 1949 Featuring 77 colour plates and 10 halftones of Clark's work ranging from nude figures to bustling urban centres to panoramic scenes from all over the world An American Impressionist pairs the raw beauty and gentle imagery of the oil on canvas works with a brief discussion of Clark's life his marriage travels abroad the toll World War I took upon him his obscure retirement and the recent rediscovery of his contributions particularly to the Impressionist tradition in California where Clark made a name and lasting memory for himself among the local art community Especially recommended for collectors students and connoisseurs of the Impressionist style 77 colour 10 halftone plates

Literary Impressionism and Modernist Aesthetics Jesse Matz, 2001-08-02 Jesse Matz examines the writing of such modernists as Henry James Joseph Conrad and Virginia Woolf who used the word impression to describe what they wanted their fiction to present Matz redefines literary Impressionism focusing on the way that impressions destroy standard perceptual distinctions between thinking and sensing believing and suspecting He argues that these writers favoured not immediate subjective sense but rather a mode that would mediate perceptual distinctions Just as impressions fall somewhere between thought and sense Impressionist fiction occupies the middle ground between opposite ways of engaging with the world Matz also argues that the resulting confusion becomes a basic plot feature of modernist fiction This wide ranging 2001

study addresses the problems of perception and representation that occupied writers in the early decades of the twentieth century

Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio

Paintings Kirstin Ringelberg,2017-07-05 Were late nineteenth century gender boundaries as restrictive as is generally held In Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings Work Place Domestic Space Kirstin Ringelberg argues that it is time to bring the current re evaluation of the notion of separate spheres to these images Focusing on studio paintings by American artists William Merritt Chase and Mary Fairchild MacMonnies Low she explores how the home based painting studio existed outside of entrenched gendered divisions of public and private space and argues that representations of these studios are at odds with standard perceptions of the images their creators and the concept of gender in the nineteenth century Unlike most of their bourgeois contemporaries Gilded Age artists whether male or female often melded the worlds of work and home Through analysis of both paintings and literature of the time Ringelberg reveals how art history continues to support a false dichotomy that in fact paintings that show women negotiating a complex combination of professionalism and domesticity are still overlooked in favor of those that emphasize women as decorative objects Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings challenges the dominant interpretation of American and European Impressionism and considers both men and women artists as active performers of multivalent identities

The Hong Kong Diaries Chris Patten,2022-06-21 The diaries of the last British Governor of Hong Kong published on the 25th anniversary of the handover In June 1992 Chris Patten went to Hong Kong as the last British governor to try to prepare it not as other British colonies over the decades for independence but for handing back in 1997 to the Chinese from whom most of its territory had been leased 99 years previously Over the next five years he kept this diary which describes in detail how Hong Kong was run as a British colony and what happened as the handover approached The book gives unprecedented insights into negotiating with the Chinese about how the institutions of democracy in Hong Kong were belatedly strengthened and how Patten sought to ensure that a strong degree of self government would continue after 1997 Unexpectedly his opponents included not only the Chinese themselves but some British businessmen and civil service mandarins upset by Patten s efforts for whom political freedom and the rule of law in Hong Kong seemed less important than keeping on the right side of Beijing The book concludes with an account of what has happened in Hong Kong since the handover a powerful assessment of recent events and Patten s reflections on how to deal with China then and now Sheer Presence Marni Reva Kessler,2006 Women's Studies Index ,1992 Dictionary of Artists' Models Jill Berk Jimenez,2013-10-15 The first reference work devoted to their lives and roles this book provides information on some 200 artists models from the Renaissance to the present day Most entries are illustrated and consist of a brief biography selected works in which the model appears with location a list of further reading This will prove an invaluable reference work for art historians librarians museum and gallery curators as well as students and researchers Georgian Bloomsbury S. Rosenbaum,2003-10-23 Georgian Bloomsbury completes the literary history of Old Bloomsbury that began with Victorian Bloomsbury 1987 and continued with Edwardian Bloomsbury 1994 Covering the years between the First Post Impressionist Exhibition and The First World War the book describes and analyzes interrelated literary works by Roger Fry Desmond MacCarthy Clive Bell E M Forster Lytton Strachey Leonard Woolf and Virginia Woolf The works considered include fiction criticism essays and polemics as well as autobiography journalism and literary history that members of the Bloomsbury Group wrote between 1910 and 1914 Degas Landscapes Richard Kendall,Edgar Degas,1993-01-01 Biografi om Degas landskaber set i relation til andre kunstneres behandling af landskabet som motiv The Art of Impressionism Anthea Callen,2000-01-01 Drawing on scientific studies of pigments and materials artists treatises colourmen s archives and contemporary and modern accounts Anthea Callen demonstrates how raw materials and paintings are profoundly interdependent She analyses the material constituents of oil painting and the complex processes of making entailed in all aspects of artistic production discussing in particular oil painting methods for landscapists and the impact of plein air light on figure painting studio practice and display Insisting that the meanings of paintings are constituted by and within the cultural matrices that produced them Callen argues that the real modernity of the Impressionist enterprise lies in the painters material practices BOOK JACKET Bloomsbury and France Mary Ann Caws,Sarah Bird Wright,1999-12-02 Bloomsbury on the Mediterranean is how Vanessa Bell described France in a letter to her sister Virginia Woolf Remarking on the vivifying effect of Cassis Woolf herself said I will take my mind out of its iron cage and let it swim Complete heaven I think it Yet until now there has never been a book that focused on the profound influence of France on the Bloomsbury group In Bloomsbury and France Art and Friends Mary Ann Caws and Sarah Bird Wright reveal the crucial importance of the Bloomsbury group s frequent sojourns to France the artists and writers they met there and the liberating effect of the country itself Drawing upon many previously unpublished letters memoirs and photographs the book illuminates the artistic development of Virginia and Leonard Woolf Clive Bell David Garnett E M Forster Lytton Strachey Dora Carrington and others The authors cover all aspects of the Bloomsbury experience in France from the specific influence of French painting on the work of Roger Fry Duncan Grant and Vanessa Bell to the heady atmosphere of the medieval Cistercian Abbaye de Pontigny the celebrated meeting place of French intellectuals where Lytton Strachey Julian Bell and Charles Mauron mingled with writers and critics to the relationships between the Bloomsbury group and Henri Matisse Pablo Picasso Gertrude Stein Andre Gide Jean Marchand and many others Caws and Wright argue that Bloomsbury would have been very different without France that France was their anti England a culture in which their eccentricities and aesthetic experiments could flower This remarkable study offers a rich new perspective on perhaps the most creative group of artists and friends in the 20th century
