God the Teacher of Mankind Michael Müller,1884 Veridical Louis Newcomb,2005-09 Veridical is a philosophical science fiction account involving man's self destruction due to greed hostility and his ambition to rule the world without discretion With no winners as a result of annihilating the human race the planet Earth becomes void of all living organisms and profanely sterile Many eons later two space travelers Jetson and Wilkes from a distant planet called Urosius alight upon the barren globe once teeming with intelligent life only to discover its infertility and fruitless landscape After probing for any sign of life intellectual or even basal the Uronians finally discover one isolated seed identical to the nucleolus of their own world Although fictional Veridical could possibly become reality in the not too distant future unless mankind alters its rational Veridical takes the reader across the parameters of infinite space in a futile attempt to discover life aside from a yet uninterpretable second universe before returning home only to learn of the annihilation of their own species The History of America William Robertson,1859
