From Story Interpretation to Sermon Crafting Charles R. Dickson, 2012-01-09 From Story Interpretation to Sermon Crafting was written by a preacher for preachers who have to deal with the competing demands of pastoral ministry It takes some of the gains of the last seven decades of the literary approach to Scripture and applies them to a vital aspect of pastoral ministry preaching The book presents a text centered and theological approach to analyzing Old Testament narratives This approach lays a solid basis for interpreting the narratives and demonstrates that the movement from examining the text to crafting the sermon is a continuous process Making use of many examples based on narrative passages from the Old Testament that facilitate grasping the methodology this approach to sermon crafting is rooted in the text shaped by the text and is characterized by sound and controlled exegesis It provides the pastor with an approach that enables Old Testament historical narrative to speak to Christian believers in contemporary society in a way that addresses the issues concerns and struggles faced by the church and Christians The writer to the Hebrews says of righteous Abel though he is dead he still speaks 11 4 Similarly these ancient stories do speak and can still speak today To make them heard effectively and relevantly is the purpose of the book

The Stratified Leadership Model of the First-Century Christian Church Barton S. Garratt Edsall, 2025-07-29 This research work aims to present a solution to the problem of withering Christian congregations present in modern Christian churches by way of expounding the doctrine that Jesus or his apostles promoted as displayed in the four canonical Gospels the Acts of the Apostles or the New Testament epistles This study presents factual information showing that the doctrine and arrangement of leaders that developed within the first century church may have been overlooked and lost by the wayside of history in favor of established traditions Paul declared his purpose for visiting the church believers in Rome was not to collect money or build houses of worship but so that their lives might manifest spiritual fruit Following that example improving the spiritual quality of their people's lives should be the primary goal of all Christian ministers The majority of this work will conduct a careful exegesis of selected passages from the New Testament which focus on the leadership model utilized by the first century church This study presents in detail the stratified leadership model of the early times in such a fashion that any modern church might replicate its design
