prism that bends and deflects light in order to produce a spectrum of twentieth century thought emanating from the late nineteenth century French literary avant garde Because the works of Mallarm and Cixous are often described as hermetic and illisible Jacques Derrida intervenes to play the role of intermediary through his separate writings on these poets Important questions arise How does the elliptical writing of Mallarm relate to the hyperbolic writing of Cixous What common strategies emerge and how do these strategies address the critical areas of sexual difference and political testimony for each writer

Passing and Pedagogy Pamela L.

Caughie, 1999 The current academic milieu displays a deep ambivalence about the teaching of Western culture and traditional subject matter This ambivalence the product of a unique historical convergence of theory and diversity opens up new opportunities for what Pamela Caughie calls passing recognizing and accounting for the subject positions involved in representing both the material being taught and oneself as a teacher Caughie's discussion of passing illuminates a recent phenomenon in academic writing and popular culture that revolves around identities and the ways in which they are deployed both in the arts and in lived experience Through a wide variety of texts novels memoirs film drama theory museum exhibits legal cases she demonstrates the dynamics of passing presenting it not as the assumption of a fraudulent identity but as the recognition that the assumption of any identity including for the purposes of teaching is a form of passing Astutely addressing the relevance of passing for pedagogy Caughie presents the possibility of a dynamic ethics responsive to the often polarizing difficulties inherent in today's culture Challenging and thought provoking Passing and Pedagogy offers insight and inspiration for teachers and scholars as they seek to be responsible and effective in a complex rapidly changing intellectual and cultural environment

Discourse, Figure Jean-François Lyotard, 2011 Antony Hudek is research fellow at Camberwell College of Arts University of the Arts London Feminist Literary Theory Joan Nordquist, 1998 Writing the Voice of Pleasure A. Callahan, 2001-11-09 The Voice of Pleasure makes a persuasive and fascinating argument that the romantic couple of Western representation is not heterosexual Nor is it homosexual With insightful new readings of landmarks of Western culture from Tristan and Yseult to Seinfeld Callahan demonstrates that the illusion of heterosexuality is created by a male artist's assumption of a feminine voice to express desire Named the troubadour effect for the first time here this tradition of male femininity in romantic writing results in a cultural model of desire best described as heterosexuality without women The most compelling aspect of the book is its attention to the effect of this paradox on women writers Illuminating her argument with striking examples from the troubairitz to Toni Morrison the author shows how women writers inscribe their vagabondage a term she coins to name the consequences of the troubadour effect for women's agency as both writers and lovers African American Literary Theory Winston Napier, 2000-07 The first volume to expound African American literary theory from the 1920s to present African American Literary Theory A Reader is the first volume to document the central texts and arguments in African American literary theory from the 1920s through the present As the volume progresses chronologically from the rise of a black aesthetic criticism through the Blacks Arts Movement feminism structuralism and poststructuralism and the rise of queer theory it focuses on the key arguments themes and debates in each period By constantly bringing attention to the larger political and cultural issues at stake in the interpretation of literary texts the critics gathered here have contributed mightily to the prominence and popularity of African American literature in this country and abroad African American Literary Theory provides a unique historical analysis of how these thinkers have shaped literary theory and literature at large and will be an indispensable text
