personal correspondences and working drafts Ennis moves on to examine how their perceptions of photography extend into their major works of fiction A Laodicean Dracula The Secret Agent The Inheritors and The Voyage Out Reflecting on the first graphic revolution in a world where text and image are now reproduced digitally and circulated en masse and online Ennis redirects our attention to when image and text appeared alongside each other for the first time and the crises this sparked for authors how they would respond to increasingly photographic depictions of everyday life and in turn how their writing adapted to a distinctly visual mass media

Rooms of their Own Nino Strachey, 2018-10-26 Evocative engaging and filled with vivid details Rooms of their Own explores the homes of these three writers linked to the Bloomsbury Group Bringing together stories of love desire and intimacy of evolving relationships and erotic encounters with vivid accounts of the settings in which they took place it offers fresh insights into their complicated interlocking lives Complete with first hand accounts this book illuminates shifting social and moral attitudes towards sexuality and gender in the 1920s and 30s I hold the conviction that as the centuries go on and the sexes become more nearly merged on account of their increasing resemblances such connections will to a very large extent cease to be regarded as merely unnatural and will be understood far better
