Religious Trauma Brooke N. Petersen,2022-08-31 Through the rich stories of eight participants the author explores the psychological spiritual and ritual dimensions of religious trauma among queer people Drawing on current scholarship in the field of trauma studies the author makes a case for religious trauma as an important frame to understand the experiences of queer people in non accepting faith communities Though previous scholarship has limited the recovery from religious trauma to those who exit religious communities in this research the author analyzes participant stories to understand how queer people might find healing in accepting religious communities Using self psychology to understand the depth of trauma experienced in non accepting communities the author explores the experience of God and sexual identity within non accepting communities Through these narratives the author demonstrates the potential for post traumatic growth and life beyond conservative faith communities Petersen argues for a number of key recommendations for congregations and pastoral caregivers that seek to welcome those who have experienced religious trauma

Most Evil Is Done by Good People Who Do Not Know That They Are Not Good Ferd L. Wagner,2010-05 This book takes the view that Christian truth is the basis for all answers to social issues and that there are not two opposing but equal answers within Christian truth that are equally valid and equally acceptable to God Any so called truth or right that circumvents or undercuts the required sacrifices disciplines and self denial demanded by God in any given social or moral issue ceases to be truth ceases to be right the moment it becomes a force unto itself outside of or independent of the Scripturally required obedience Human history has shown over the millennia that when the letter and spirit of God s laws are not obeyed the truth is abused nations become confused and people are used Many of our political and social issues are rooted in our misplaced belief that tolerance inclusion equal respect for unequal truth and live and let live is the way to greater peace and prosperity They are all wrong Each individual government and nation is judged by their response to Christ The Christian nation or one which ascribes to being one is tasked to set the Christian standard as every nation s point of reference It is the Christian s duty to show that the valid rule of God s law the letter of God s law and the spirit of God s law are superior to any other alternative standard The biggest obstacle to Christianity today is the undisciplined misinformed and unfaithful lifestyles of professing Christians The Church has become so indoctrinated in its aversion to any form of discrimination that it has placed a higher priority on keeping the peace by compromising than by keeping the truth by discriminating By accepting a false peace and rejecting a hard truth that resists compromise it begets neither peace nor truth
