Migrants and Comparative Education Zehavit Gross, 2020-04-20 Migration is one of the major phenomena that characterizes the modern world and even more post modernity Improved transportation and advanced technology have facilitated transition from place to place and this phenomenon of greater mobility has changed the world and humanity Given the fact that many countries in both the developed and underdeveloped world face similar challenges due to the current mass migration comparative research in terms of the responses of government and non government organizations NGOs both local and international allows for a deeper understanding of ways of approaching the many challenges relating to immigration and education The comparative dimension enables both scholars and policy makers to compare and contrast different approaches and to weigh up what approach is most suitable for their circumstances The aim of Migrants and Comparative Education Call to Re Engagement is to bring together new research and conceptualizations on education s complex and evolving role in the immigration process in different contexts around the world at different levels of education and from different theoretical perspectives It is hoped that by so doing a better understanding will emerge of the issues and challenges associated with immigration that can assist policy makers and practitioners
