CHAPTER ONE The cold winds blew past Scott as he sat anxiously at the bus stop He had just arrived in New Orleans waiting for his uncle to come and pick him up He glanced at both sides of the road with his pale face waxed dark hair plastered to his forehead and deep blue eyes which sunk deep into his skull wearing a long leather brown jacket which reached down his feet black jean trousers and a red woolen muffler round his neck It was already dark with a few clouds visible in the sky No one seemed to be walking on the sidewalks anymore Silence filled the streets as the wind made falling leaves to hover across midair The only sound Scott could hear was the howling winds and rustling leaves from the trees planted along the pavements of the street Fright washed through him while he sat all alone on the bench He turned his head to his left side to see a silhouetted animal standing in the middle of the road Isn t that a wolf standing in the middle of the road he thought The wolf was a little different four feet taller than the normal and an enormous one Scott stared at it with a taut jaw It was the first time he had seen such a huge creature and he never even thought they existed The animal stared right back at him with glowing eyes It growled showing its gritted teeth at him Scott s heart began racing and his palms sweating The wolf was moving slowly towards him He jerked up from his seat holding onto his briefcase Then a light suddenly came from the other end of the road He turned his stare to that direction and saw the light coming from a blue SUV s head lights Uncle he thought feeling a sense of relief He turned his head to the left direction again and the wolf had disappeared He sighed deeply and shrugged As predicted the car stopped next to him The horns beeped and the window glass rolled down Scott his uncle shrieked with a large grin on his face His skin was pale like Scott s shaved head wrinkled face probably in his fifty s and an imperial shaped beard wearing a black
