Song Cycle:

The Song Cycle Laura Tunbridge, 2010 Investigates how other types of music have influenced the scope of the song cycle from operas and symphonies to popular song Word and Music Studies Walter Bernhart, Werner Wolf, David L. Mosley, 2001 This volume assembles twelve interdisciplinary essays that were originally presented at the Second International Conference on Word and Music Studies at Ann Arbor MI in 1999 a conference organized by the International Association for Word and Music Studies WMA The contributions to this volume focus on two centres of interest The first deals with general issues of literature and music relations from culturalist historical reception aesthetic and cognitive points of view It covers issues such as conceptual problems in devising transdisciplinary histories of both arts cultural functions of opera as a means of reflecting postcolonial national identity the problem of verbalizing musical experience in nineteenth century aesthetics and of understanding reception processes triggered by musicalized fiction The second centre of interest deals with a specific genre of vocal music as an obvious area of word and music interaction namely the song cycle As a musico literary genre the song cycle not only permits explorations of relations between text and music in individual songs but also raises the question if and to what extent words and or music contribute to creating a larger unity beyond the limits of single songs Elucidating both of these issues with stimulating diversity the essays in this section highlight classic nineteenth and twentieth century song cycles by Franz Schubert Robert Schumann Hugo Wolf Richard Strauss and Benjamin Britten and also include the discussion of a modern successor of the song cycle the concept album as part of today s popular culture

The Faure Song Cycles Stephen Rumph, 2020-09-29 Gabriel Faur s m lodies offer an inexhaustible variety of style and expression that have made them the foundation of the French art song repertoire During the second half of his long career Faur composed all but a handful of his songs within six carefully integrated cycles Faur moved systematically through his poetic contemporaries exhausting Baudelaire s Les fleurs du mal before immersing himself in the Parnassian poets He would set nine poems by Armand Silvestre in swift succession 1878 84 seventeen by Paul Verlaine 1887 94 and eighteen by Charles Van Lerberghe 1906 14 As an artist deeply engaged with some of the most important cultural issues of the period Faur reimagined his musical idiom with each new poet and school and his song cycles show the same sensitivity to the poetic material Far more than Debussy Ravel or Poulenc he crafted his song cycles as integrated works reordering poems freely and using narratives key schemes and even leitmotifs to unify the individual songs The Faure Song Cycles explores the peculiar vision behind each synthesis of music and verse revealing the astonishing imagination and insight of Faur s musical readings This book offers not only close readings of Faur s musical works but an interdisciplinary study of how he responded to the changing schools and aesthetic currents of French poetry Essays on the Song Cycle and on Defining the Field, 2022-07-18 This volume assembles twelve interdisciplinary essays that were originally presented at the Second International Conference on Word and Music Studies at Ann Arbor MI in 1999 a conference organized by the International Association for
