Text by James I. Robertson. Art Selected by Frederic Ray James I. Robertson, 1971 The Civil War Geoffrey C. Ward, Kenneth Burns, RICHARD BURNS, 1994-09-06 Based on the celebrated PBS television series about the men and women who lived through the cataclysmic trial of our nationhood the complete text of the magisterial illustrated work of history that The New York Times hailed as a treasure for the eye and mind The Civil War defined us as what we are and it opened us to being what we became good and bad things It was the crossroads of our being and it was a hell of a crossroads the suffering the enormous tragedy of the whole thing Shelby Foote from The Civil War Now Geoffrey Ward's magisterial work of history is available in a text only edition that interweaves the author's narrative with the voices of the men and women who lived through the cataclysmic trial of our nationhood not just Abraham Lincoln Frederick Douglass and Robert E Lee but genteel Southern ladies and escaped slaves cavalry officers and common foot soldiers who fought in Yankee blue and Rebel gray The Civil War also includes essays by our most distinguished historians of the era Don E Fehrenbacher on the war's origins Barbara J Fields on the freeing of the slaves Shelby Foote on the war's soldiers and commanders James M McPherson on the political dimensions of the struggle and C Vann Woodward assessing the America that emerged from the war's ashes The Colors of Dignity Catherine Durant Voorhees, 2013-03-07 Leaving his home on the Illinois prairie Giles Shurtleff attended Oberlin College just prior to the Civil War President Lincoln's call for troops after the firing on Fort Sumter in 1861 led to a great fervor of patriotism in Oberlin Giles was elected Captain of Company C of the 7th Ohio Volunteer Infantry He wrote this about army life No other experience could equal it as a school for the study of human nature both at its worst and at its best Most of his soldiers realized they were liable to be sick wounded or killed but never thought about being captured In August of 1861 Capt Shurtleff and 35 others were taken prisoner at the Battle of Cross Lanes VA Giles was kept prisoner in the South in places such as Libby Prison under deplorable conditions over a period of a year During that time he personally experienced what it does to the human soul to be robbed of dignity After a year Giles was released in a prisoner exchange and was then recruited to raise a regiment of colored troops His goal for them was to disprove the rampant rumor that former slaves and free African Americans would make poor soldiers At the Battle of New Market Heights in which Giles was wounded his regiment proved worthy Four of the men from his regiment were amongst the twenty colored soldiers who received the Congressional Medal of Honor for gallantry during the Civil War At the end of the war Giles was
