The Conditioned Imagination from Shakespeare to Conrad Michael J. C. Echeruo, 1978-01-01 The Critical Imagination in African Literature Maik Nwosu, Obiwu, 2015-06-09 In African studies the Echeruoan ideal is understood as an intervention or intellectual engagement characterized by a broadness of vision as well as a depth of analysis The essays gathered in this volume celebrate that ideal and honor Echeruo's contribution to the African intellectual tradition Editors Nwosu and Obiwu explore the driving forces in the literature of Africa and the African diaspora Contributors examine such themes as migration and exile trauma and repression violence and rebellion and gender and human rights Showcasing a rich diversity of cultural and academic backgrounds this volume inaugurates a new paradigm for further examination of African literature as world literature and for analysis of African literature through the lens of psychoanalytic semiotics While varied in modes of inquiry the essays are unified in their ambition to explore new theoretical directions reinvigorating the conversation around how African literature is read and studied The Jewish Persona in the European Imagination Leonid Livak, 2010-09-10 This book proposes that the idea of the Jews in European cultures has little to do with actual Jews but rather is derived from the conception of Jews as Christianity's paradigmatic Other eternally reenacting their morally ambiguous New Testament role as the Christ bearing and killing chosen people of God Through new readings of canonical Russian literary texts by Gogol Turgenev Chekhov Babel and others the author argues that these European writers Christian secular and Jewish based their representation of Jews on the Christian exegetical tradition of anti Judaism Indeed Livak disputes the classification of some Jewish writers as belonging to Jewish literature arguing that such an approach obscures these writers debt to European literary traditions and their ambivalence about their Jewishness This work seeks to move the study of Russian literature and Russian Jewish literature in particular down a new path It will stir up controversy around Christian Jewish cultural interaction the representation of otherness in European arts and folklore modern Jewish experience and Russian literature and culture Conrad and Imperialism Benita Parry, 1983-06-18 Pragmatic Perspectives on Postcolonial Discourse Christoph Schubert, Laurenz Volkmann, 2016-06-22 In sociolinguistic research on Englishes world wide little has been published on the pragmatics of postcolonial varieties This interdisciplinary volume closes this research gap by providing integrative investigations of postcolonial discourses probing the interstices between linguistic methodologies and literary text analysis The literary texts under discussion are conceptualized as media both reflecting and creating reality so that they provide valuable insights into postcolonial discourse phenomena The contributions deal with the issue of how postcolonial Englishes such as those spoken in India Nigeria South Africa and the Caribbean have produced different pragmatic conventions in a complex interplay of culture specific and global linguistic practices They show the ways in which hybrid communicative situations based on ethnic cultural and linguistic diversity result in similarly hybrid social and communicative routines The central pragmatic paradigms discussed here include im politeness speech act conventions conversational

C. Echeruo,1978 Barbaric Intercourse Martha Banta,2003-01-15 Barbaric Intercourse tells the story of a century of social upheaval and the satiric attacks it inspired in leading periodicals in both England and America Martha Banta explores the politics of caricature and cartoon from 1841 to 1936 devoting special attention to the original Life magazine For Banta Life embodied all the strengths and weaknesses of the Progressive Era whose policies of reform sought to cope with the frenetic urbanization of New York the racist laws of the Jim Crow South and the rise of jingoism in the United States Barbaric Intercourse shows how Life s take on these trends and events resulted in satires both cruel and enlightened Banta also deals extensively with London s Punch a sharp critic of American nationalism and draws from images and writings in magazines as diverse as Puck The Crisis Harper s Weekly and The International Socialist Review Orchestrating a wealth of material including reproductions of rarely seen political cartoons she offers a richly layered account of the cultural struggles of the age from contests over immigration and the role of the New Negro in American society to debates over Wall Street greed women s suffrage and the moral consequences of Western expansionism

The Business of Satirical Prints in Late-Georgian England James Baker,2017-04-06 This book explores English single sheet satirical prints published from 1780 1820 the people who made those prints and the businesses that sold them It examines how these objects were made how they were sold and how both the complexity of the production process and the necessity to sell shaped and constrained the satiric content these objects contained It argues that production sale and environment are crucial to understanding late Georgian satirical prints A majority of these prints were after all published in London and were therefore woven into the commercial culture of the Great Wen Because of this city and its culture the activities of the many individuals involved in transforming a single satirical design into a saleable and commercially viable object were underpinned by a nexus of making selling and consumption Neglecting any one part of this nexus does a disservice both to the late Georgian satirical print these most beloved objects of British art and to the story of their late Georgian apotheosis a story that James Baker develops not through the designs these objects contained but rather through those objects and the designs they contained in the making Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness Gene M.

Moore,2010-04-10 Heart of Darkness Joseph Conrad s fictional account of a journey up the Congo river in 1890 raises important questions about colonialism and narrative theory This casebook contains materials relevant to a deeper understanding of the origins and reception of this controversial text including Conrad s own story An Outpost of Progress together with a little known memoir by one of Conrad s oldest English friends a brief history of the Congo Free State by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and a parody of Conrad by Max Beerbohm A wide range of theoretical approaches are also represented examining Conrad s text in terms of cultural historical textual stylistic narratological post colonial feminist and reader response criticism The volume concludes with an interview in which Conrad compares his adventures on the Congo with Mark Twain's experiences as a Mississippi pilot
