The Contested City:

Jerusalem Menachem Klein, 2001-03 Klein political science Bar Ilan U is a board member of B'tselem the Israeli Information Center for Human Rights in the Occupied Territories He draws on a number of disciplines to detail the political history of Jerusalem in Arab Israel relations since the 1960s a relationship of unequal partners that became the focus of classes again in late 2000 c Book News Inc The Cambridge Companion to Raphael Marcia B. Hall, 2005-03-07 This book examines all facets of the High Renaissance painter Raphael The Restless City Joanne Reitano, 2018-02-28 The Restless City A Short History of New York from Colonial Times to the Present is a brief insightful and lively history of the peoples events and interactions that have formed New York City Weaving together the shifting currents of economic political social and cultural life Joanne Reitano shows how New York has acted both as an indicator and a driver of the American experience in its negotiation of evolving urban challenges The third edition of The Restless City has been updated to include new material on early settler Native American interactions and to be more fully inclusive of the outer boroughs of New York Each chapter features at least two primary sources accompanied by discussion questions for students Authoritative and comprehensive The Restless City remains a superior resource for students and scholars interested in the rich history of the nation s premier urban center A People's History of Detroit Mark Jay, Philip Conklin, 2020-04-17 Recent bouts of gentrification and investment in Detroit have led some to call it the greatest turnaround story in American history Meanwhile activists point to the city s cuts to public services water shutoffs mass foreclosures and violent police raids In A People's History of Detroit Mark Jay and Philip Conklin use a class framework to tell a sweeping story of Detroit from 1913 to the present embedding Motown s history in a global economic context Attending to the struggle between corporate elites and radical working class organizations Jay and Conklin outline the complex sociopolitical dynamics underlying major events in Detroit s past from the rise of Fordism and the formation of labor unions to deindustrialization and the city s recent bankruptcy They demonstrate that Detroit s history is not a tale of two cities one of wealth and development and another racked by poverty and racial violence rather it is the story of a single Detroit that operates according to capitalism s mandates The Politics of Downtown Development Stephen J. McGovern, 2014-10-17 American cities experienced an extraordinary surge in downtown development during the 1970s and 1980s Pro growth advocates in urban government and the business community believed that the construction of office buildings hotels convention centers and sports complexes would generate jobs and tax revenue while revitalizing stagnant local economies But neighborhood groups soon became disgruntled with the unanticipated costs and unfulfilled promises of rapid expansion and grassroots opposition erupted in cities throughout the United States Through an insightful comparison of effective protest in San Francisco and ineffective protest in Washington D C Stephen McGovern examines how citizens even those lacking financial resources have sought to control their own urban environments McGovern interviews nearly one hundred business activists government officials and business leaders exploring the influence of political culture and individual citizens perceptions of a particular development issue McGovern offers a compelling explanation of why some battles against city hall succeed while so many others fail

The Sanitary City Martin V. Melosi, 2008-04-27 Immersed in their on demand highly consumptive and disposable lifestyles most urban Americans take for granted the technologies that provide them with potable water remove their trash and process their wastewater These vital services however are the byproduct of many decades of development by engineers sanitarians and civic planners In The Sanitary City Martin V Melosi assembles a comprehensive thoroughly researched and referenced history of sanitary services in urban America He examines the evolution of water supply sewage systems and solid waste disposal during three distinct eras The Age of Miasmas pre 1880 The Bacteriological Revolution 1880 1945 and The New Ecology 1945 to present day Originally published in 2000 this abridged edition includes updated text and bibliographic materials The Sanitary City is an essential resource for those interested in environmental history environmental engineering science and technology urban studies and public health

Introduction to Cities Xiangming Chen, Anthony M. Orum, Krista E. Paulsen, 2018-04-30 The revised and updated second edition of Introduction to Cities explores why cities are such a vital part of the human experience and how they shape our everyday lives Written in engaging and accessible terms Introduction to Cities examines the study of cities through two central concepts that cities are places where people live form communities and establish their own identities and that they are spaces such as the inner city and the suburb that offer a way to configure and shape the material world and natural environment Introduction to Cities covers the theory of cities from an historical perspective right through to the most recent theoretical developments The authors offer a balanced account of life in cities and explore both positive and negative themes In addition the text takes a global approach with examples ranging from Berlin and Chicago to Shanghai and Mumbai The book is extensively illustrated with updated maps charts tables and photographs This new edition also includes a new section on urban planning as well as new chapters on cities as contested spaces exploring power and politics in an urban context It contains information on the status of poor and marginalized groups and the impact of neoliberal policies material on gender and sexuality and presents a greater range of geographies with more attention to European Latin American and African cities Revised and updated Introduction to Cities provides a complete introduction to the history evolution and future of our modern cities

SEE! Kai Vöckler, 2012 By drawing on the experience of different independent initiatives and associations in southeastern Europe is it possible to draft and collate typical development and qualification strategies for periods of urban transformation in post conflict situations along with applying these to similar urban situations elsewhere This book presents different approaches to this topic and answers the question with an absolute yes The book offers contributions from local initiatives throughout southeastern Europe and looks forward to enhancing debate and action with both local and international impact Series ERSTE Foundation Vol 2

Conflicts W. Pullan, B. Baillie, 2013-07-29 Cities have emerged as the epicentres for many of today's ethno national and religious conflicts This book brings together key themes that dominate our current attention including emerging areas of contestation in rapidly changing and modernising cities and the effects of extreme and/or enduring conflicts upon ordinary civilian life

People and Politics in Urban America, Second Edition Robert W. Kweit, Mary G. Kweit, 2013-11-26 First Published in 1998 Approximately 75 percent of Americans live in cities and surrounding suburbs and the characteristics of those cities inescapably affect the quality of their lives This book examines the extent to which these Americans use the political process to control the characteristics of life in their metropolises In addition this second edition revision places great emphasis on the role of political leaders while recognising the interdependence between those leaders and various interests in the city

The City Since 9/11 Keith Wilhite, 2016-03-04 Charting the intersection of aesthetic representation and the material conditions of urban space The City Since 9/11 posits that the contemporary metropolis provides a significant context for reassessing theoretical concerns related to narrative identity home and personal precarity In the years since the September 11 attacks writers and filmmakers have explored urban spaces as contested sites shaped by the prevailing discourses of neoliberalism homeland security and the war on terror but also haunted by an absence in the landscape that registers loss and prefigures future menace In works of literature film and television the city emerges as a paradoxical space of permanence and vulnerability and a convergence point for anxieties about globalization structural inequality and apocalyptic violence Building on previous scholarship addressing trauma and the spectacle of terror the contributors also draw upon works of philosophy urban studies and postmodern geography to theorize how literary and visual representations expose the persistent conflicts that arise as cities rebuild in the shadow of past ruins Their essays advance new lines of argument that clarify art's role in contemporary debates about spatial practices gentrification cosmopolitanism memory and history nostalgia the uncanny and the abject postmodern virtuality the politics of realism and the economic and social life of cities The book offers fresh readings of familiar post 9/11 novels such as Jonathan Safran Foer's Extremely Loud & Incredibly Close but it also considers works by Teju Cole Joseph O'Neill Silver Krieger Colum McCann Ronald Sukenick Jonathan Lethem Thomas Pynchon Colson Whitehead Paul Auster William Gibson Amitav Ghosh and Katherine Boo In addition The City Since 9/11 includes essays on the films Children of Men Hugo and the adaptation of Extremely Loud & Incredibly Close chapters on the television series The Bridge The Killing and The Wire and an analysis of Michael Arad's Reflecting Absence and the 9/11 Memorial

University City Laura Wolf-Powers, 2022-09-20 A chronicle of neighborhood redevelopment politics in West Philadelphia over 60 years In twenty-first century American cities policy makers increasingly celebrate university sponsored innovation districts as engines of inclusive growth But the story is not so simple In University City Laura Wolf Powers chronicles five decades of planning in and around the communities of West Philadelphia's University City to illuminate how the dynamics of innovation district development in the present both depart from and connect to the politics of mid twentieth century urban renewal Drawing on archival and ethnographic research Wolf Powers concludes that even as university and government leaders vow to develop without displacement what existing residents value is imperiled when innovation driven redevelopment remains accountable to the property market The book first traces the municipal and institutional politics that empowered officials to demolish a predominantly Black neighborhood near the University of Pennsylvania and Drexel University in the late 1960s to make way for the University City Science Center and University City High School It also provides new insight into organizations whose members experimented during that same period with alternative conceptions of economic advancement The book then shifts to the present documenting contemporary efforts to position university adjacent neighborhoods as locations for prosperity built on scientific knowledge Wolf Powers examines the work of mobilized civic groups to push cultural preservation concerns into the public arena and to win policies to help economically insecure families keep a foothold in changing neighborhoods Placing Philadelphia's innovation districts in the context of similar development taking place around the United States University City advocates a reorientation of redevelopment practice around the recognition that despite their negligible worth in real estate terms the time care and energy people invest in their local environments and in one another are precious urban resources Pictured on the book's cover is a luncheon on Melon Street between 37th and 38th Streets in West Philadelphia May 31 2014 The community meal was part of Funeral for a Home a project that honored the life and passing of a house at 3711 Melon Street in Mantua Photo by Jeffrey Stockbridge Funeral for a Home was commissioned by Temple Contemporary Temple University Original support for Funeral for a Home was provided by The Pew Center for Arts Heritage Philadelphia

Writing Windhoek Ellison Tjirera, 2025-10-01 Small cities have something to offer in terms of theoretical resources and renewing our understanding of urban life In other words all cities do matter and are therefore worthy of drawing from Condemning insignificant cities to oblivion is a travesty that will leave urban studies poorer Importantly no city is reducible to one register in the representation of its essence In Writing Windhoek Ellison Tjirera makes an attempt to revivify the Capital city of Namibia and treat it as an idea meriting a closer examination and reflection In illuminating the essence of Windhoek's cityness this book traces its history of spatial segregation an imprint that continues to define contemporary city life The cultural memory of Windhoek is analysed as a way of accessing what is otherwise a not so obvious strand through which to understand a city that has escaped a sustained scholarly rendition In his further layering of the city Tjirera provides a portrait of Windhoek through urban fantasies regimes of the legal and how migration is implicated in shaping social heterogeneity and concatenations of various urban rhythms

Theorizing the City Setha M. Low, 1999 Anthropological perspectives are not often represented in urban studies even though many anthropologists have been contributing actively to theory and research on urban poverty racism globalization and architecture Theorizing the City corrects this omission Following a brief history of urban anthropology emphasizing developments in the field during the 1990s this volume presents twelve ethnographies of major cities in the Americas Africa Asia and Europe Five images of the city the divided city the contested city the global city the modernist city and the postmodern city serve as frameworks for the essays Each section highlights current research trends such as poststructural studies of race class and gender in the urban context political economic studies of transnational culture and studies of the symbolic meanings and social production of urban spaces

Architecture, Space and Memory of Resurrection in Northern Ireland Mohamed Gamal Abdelmonem, Gehan Selim, 2019-04-25 Northern Ireland has a complex urbanism with multilayered socio spatial politics In this environment issues of communication self representation and expression of identity are central to the experience of urban space and architecture where the dichotomy of division and shared living are spatially exercised in everyday life Unlike other studies in the area this book focuses on the everyday experiences of local communities in both public and private spheres issues of shareness challenging conventional approaches to divided cities The book aims to layer its narratives of architectural and social developments as an urban experience in post conflict settings over the past two decades

The City Builders Susan S. Fainstein, 2001 This revised edition examines major redevelopment efforts in New York and London to uncover the forces behind these investment cycles and the role that public policy can play in moderating market instability It chronicles the progress of three development projects in New York and three in London

The City Reader Richard T. LeGates, Frederic Stout, 2003 This third edition juxtaposes the very best publications on the city It reflects the latest thinking on globalization information technology and urban theory It is a comprehensive mapping of the terrain of urban studies old and new
