

The Hungarian Workers Councils In 1956

Robert Bideleux, Ian Jeffries

The Hungarian Workers Councils In 1956:

Hungarian Workers' Councils in 1956, 1990 From the preeminent writer of Taiwanese nativist fiction and the leading translator of Chinese literature come these poignant accounts of everyday life in rural and small town Taiwan Huang is frequently cited as one of the most original and gifted storytellers in the Chinese language and these selections reveal his genius In The Two Sign Painters TV reporters ambush two young workers from the country taking a break atop a twenty four story building His Son's Big Doll introduces the tortured soul inside a walking advertisement and in Xiaoqi's Cap a dissatisfied pressure cooker salesman is fascinated by a young schoolgirl Huang's characters generally the uneducated and disadvantaged who must cope with assaults on their traditionalism hostility from their urban brethren and of course the debilitating effects of poverty come to life in all their human uniqueness free from idealization Imre Nagy, Martyr of the Nation Karl P. Benziger, 2008-04-28 Imre Nagy is a compelling figure both in life and in death _one whose actions stimulated consequences in Hungary that continue into the present Providing a summary review of Hungarian Cold War history Benziger examines the ways in which the memory of the martyred prime minister and the story of the 1956 Revolution influenced political socialization in Hungary The book begins with Nagy's 1989 funeral and the role memorialization played in the politics of transition continuing with a review of the important personages and events that informed Nagy's life and afterlife and it concludes in the tumultuous politics following the establishment of the Republic in 1989 Readers interested in Central and Eastern Europe will find this book useful as it expands the literature on history and memory and transition politics in the region Freedom and Dissatisfaction in the Works of Agnes Heller Lucy Jane Ward, 2016-12-27 Ward's book focuses on the work of the Hungarian philosopher Agnes Heller prominent member of the Budapest School a group of students who studied under the Marxist social theorist Gyrgy Lukcs For both Marx and Heller albeit in different ways dissatisfaction emerges as the inevitable result of the expansion of need's within modernity and as a catalyst for the development of anthropological wealth what Marx refers to as the human being rich in need Ward argues that dissatisfaction and the corresponding category of human wealth as both motif and method is central to grasping Heller's seemingly disparate writings While Marx postulates a radical overcoming of dissatisfaction Heller argues dissatisfaction is integral not only to the on going survival of modernity but also to the dynamics of both freedom and individual life In this way Heller's work remains committed to a position that both continually returns and departs is both with and against the philosophy of Marx This book will be of interest to scholars of political philosophy social theory critical theory and sociology report of the special committee on the problem of hungary, 1957 Eastern European Capitalism in the Making Elena A. Iankova, 2002-09-09 Publisher Description A History of Eastern Europe Robert Bideleux, Ian Jeffries, 2006-04-10 A History of Eastern Europe Crisis and Change is a wide ranging single volume history of the lands between the lands which have lain between Germany Italy and the Tsarist and Soviet empires Bideleux and Jeffries examine the problems that have bedevilled this troubled region during its imperial past the interwar period under fascism under communism and since 1989 While mainly focusing on the modern era and on the effects of ethnic nationalism fascism and communism the book also offers original striking and revisionist coverage of ancient and medieval times the Hussite Revolution the Renaissance the Reformation and the Counter Reformation the legacies of Byzantium the Ottoman Empire and the Hapsburg Empire the rise and decline of the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth the impact of the region's powerful Russian and Germanic neighbours rival concepts of Central and Eastern Europe the 1920s land reforms and the 1930s Depression Providing a thematic historical survey and analysis of the formative processes of change which have played the paramount roles in shaping the development of the region A History of Eastern Europe itself will play a paramount role in the studies of European historians

Worlds of Labour Turned Upside Down, 2020-09-29 This volume offers a bold restatement of the importance of social history for understanding modern revolutions The essays collected in Worlds of Labour Turned Upside Down provide global case studies examining changes in labour relations as a causal factor in revolutions challenges to existing labour relations as a motivating factor during revolutions the long term impact of revolutions on the evolution of labour relations The volume examines a wide range of revolutions in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries covering examples from South America Africa Asia and Western and Eastern Europe The volume goes beyond merely examining the place of industrial workers paying attention to the position of slaves women working on the front line of civil war colonial forced labourers and white collar workers Contributors are Knud Andresen Zsombor B dy Pepijn Brandon Dimitrii Churakov Gabriel Di Meglio Kimmo Elo Adrian Grama Renate H rtgen Peyman Jafari Marcel van der Linden Tiina Lintunen Jo o Carlos Lou Stefan M ller Raquel Varela and Felix Wemheuer

A Nation Divided by History and Memory Gábor Gyáni, 2020-07-12 During the last few decades there has been a growing recognition of the great role that remembering and collective memory play in forming the historical awareness In addition the dominant national form of history writing also met some challenges on the side of a transnational approach to the past In A Nation Divided by History and Memory a prominent Hungarian historian sheds light on how Hungary's historical image has become split as a consequence of the differences between the historian's conceptualisation of national history and its diverse representations in personal and collective memory The book focuses on the shocking experiences and the intense memorial reactions generated by a few key historical events and the way in which they have been interpreted by the historical scholarship The argument of A Nation Divided by History and Memory is placed into the context of an international historical discourse This pioneering work is essential and enlightening reading for all historians many sociologists political scientists social psychologists and university students

Socialisme ou Barbarie: An Anthology Cornelius Castoriadis, Sébastien de Diesbach, Jacques Gautrat, Claude Lefort, Jean-François Lyotard, Alberto Masó, Paul Romano, Pierre Souryi, Benno Sternberg, Jack Weinberg, 2018-10-01 SOCIALISME OU BARBARIE 1948-67 was a revolutionary group whose journal of the same name helped inspire France's May 68 student worker rebellion and influenced generations of radicals worldwide This Anthology for the first time in print in the English language restores the collective nature of the group's adventure where manual and intellectual workers creatively and not without profound disagreements reflected and acted together in anticipation of a non hierarchical self governing society The group radically reoriented critical revolutionary theory by affirming how social change emerges through ordinary people's everyday lives and struggles In a world divided into two competing bureaucratic capitalist camps the autonomous grassroots response to rationalized forms of outside control State corporation trade union political party would be workers management a conclusion stunningly confirmed against traditional Left expectations by the workers revolts of 1953 and 1956 in the East and by increasingly widespread challenges to established organizational forms in the 1960s in the West These texts not only examine the overall crisis of systems of domination but explore their creative contestation in the workplace in changing relations between the sexes and between generations and in movements for national liberation China Algeria to bring out the positive content of socialism while remaining clear eyed about how bureaucratization may be reintroduced into emancipatory struggles

The Revolutions of 1989 Vladimir Tismaneanu, 2005-07-28 The Revolutions of 1989 is a collection of both classic and recent articles examining the causes and consequences of the collapse of communism in East and Central Europe the most important event in recent world history It includes discussion of the economic political and social nature of revolutions the role of dissidents and civil society in encouraging the breakdown of eastern European communist regimes comparisons with other revolutions the extent of the collapse of Leninist regimes in East Central Europe European historians scholars and students will want to make this an integral part of their studies

Democracy, Dialectics, and Difference Brian C. Lovato, 2015-12-07 It has been nearly two centuries since Marx famously turned Hegel on his head in order to repurpose dialectics as a revolutionary way of thinking about the internal contradictions of our social relations Despite critiques from post structuralists post colonialists and others there has been a resurgence of dialectical thought among political theorists as of late This resurgence has coincided with a rise in the mention of words like class warfare socialism and communism among the general public on the streets of Seattle in 1999 in Cairo's Tahrir Square in the actions of the Greek anarchists and the Spanish indignados and in the rallying cry of we are the 99% of the Occupy Movement and in academia This book explores how it is that dialectical thought might respond to the critiques brought forth by those on the left who are critical of Marxism's universalizing and authoritarian legacy Brian C Lovato singles out Ernesto Laclau and Chantal Mouffe as the key interlocutors in this ongoing conversation between Marxism and post structuralism Laclau and Mouffe argue that Marxist theory is inherently authoritarian cannot escape a class reductionist theory of revolutionary subjectivity and is bound by a closed Hegelian ontology Lovato argues the opposite by turning to two heterodox Marxist thinkers Raya Dunayevskaya and C L R James in order to construct a radically democratic dynamic and open conceptualization of dialectical thought In doing so he advances a vision of Marxist theory that might serve as a resource to scholars and activists committed not only to combatting capitalism but also to fighting against colonialism patriarchy white supremacy and heteronormativity The writings of Dunayevskaya and James allow for Marxism to become relevant again in these tumultuous early years of the 21st century

The State against Society Grzegorz Ekiert,1996-09-30 Classical images of state socialism developed in contemporary social sciences were founded on simple presuppositions State socialist regimes were considered to be politically stable due to their pervasive institutional and ideological control over the everyday lives of their citizens impervious to reform and change and representative of extreme political and economic dependency Despite their contrasting historical experiences they have been treated as basically identical in their institutional design social and economic structures and policies Grzegorz Ekiert challenges this notion in a comparative analysis of the major political crises in post 1945 East Central Europe Hungary 1956 63 Czechoslovakia 1968 76 and Poland 1980 89 The author maintains that the nature and consequences of these crises can better explain the distinctive experiences of East Central European countries under communist rule than can the formal characteristics of their political and economic systems or their politically dependent status He explores how political crises reshaped party state institutions redefined relations between party and state institutions altered the relationship between the state and various groups and organizations within society and modified the political practices of these regimes He shows how these events transformed cultural categories produced collective memories and imposed long lasting constraints on mass political behavior and the policy choices of ruling elites These crises shaped the political evolution of the region produced important cross national differences among state socialist regimes and contributed to the distinctive patterns of their collapse

The French Left Arthur Hirsh,1982 Imre Nagy János M. Rainer,2009-08-30 After nearly three decades of dutiful service to the Communist Party Imre Nagy led the popular uprising against the Soviet authorities during the 1956 Hungarian Revolution Two years later he was disgraced and executed How did the formerly loyal Party servant become one of its most ardent critics How did he reconcile his own beliefs with the demands of the Party for so long and what finally drove him to take a stand And how should we understand his legacy for the modern democracy of Hungary This definitive biography of the Communist leader traces his life from his conventional petty bourgeois childhood in south west Hungary through his tremendous political achievements and ultimate dramatic failure The first complete portrait of this complex and contradictory figure Imre Nagy is vividly brought to life as an enigmatic figure whose actions shaped Hungary's destiny in 1956 and ever since

Political Economy of Socialism Branko Horvat,2020-10-07 This book is an exploration into the uncharted territory of social reality It explores social relations and politics presenting a critique of contemporary socioeconomic systems and discussions on the Marxist Doctrine of Transition The book is intended to meet Robert Heilbroner's request

Russia: From Revolution To Counter-Revolution Ted Grant, Biographical Dictionary of Central and Eastern Europe in the Twentieth Century Wojciech Roszkowski,Jan Kofman,2016-07-08 Drawing on newly accessible archives as well as memoirs and other sources this biographical dictionary

documents the lives of some two thousand notable figures in twentieth century Central and Eastern Europe A unique compendium of information that is not currently available in any other single resource the dictionary provides concise profiles of the region s most important historical and cultural actors from Ivo Andric to King Zog Coverage includes Albania Belarus the Czech and Slovak Republics Hungary Estonia Latvia Lithuania Poland Romania and Moldova Ukraine and the countries that made up Yugoslavia A Short History of My Philosophy Agnes Heller,2011-01-01 A Short History of My Philosophy is an autobiographic account of Agnes Heller s intellectual and academic career It traces the development of ideas and gives a thorough account of some of Agnes Heller s most influential works The Journal of Communist Studies ,1990 Castoriadis and Critical Theory Christos Memos,2014-11-18 By exploring the concepts of crisis and critique this study offers a thought provoking re examination of the political and social thought of Cornelius Castoriadis in light of the current world crisis and with regard to his radical critique of both the traditional Left and contemporary capitalist societies
