The Hunting Of Shadroth:

The Hunting of Shadroth Victor Kelleher, 1983 Reissue of a children's novel first published in Australia in 1983 Winner of the Special Award in the WA Young Readers Awards 1983 it is set in a mythical land and concerns the perilous journey of a youth cast out of his clan The author has written many highly regarded children's books including the award winning Master of the Grove The Beast of Heaven Victor Kelleher, 1995 The disturbing and awesome Beast of Heaven wanders a ruined Earth destroyed long before by an atomic holocaust He shares the land with the Gatherers a gentle nomadic tribe sensitive to the spirits of those long dead Also present is the legacy of the project A2Z an intricate computer debate with terrifying implications Winner Australian Science Fiction Achievement Award A Sea of Upturned Faces Winifred Ragsdale, 1989 Authors librarians and critics from Pacific Rim countries share national and universal aspects of children's literature in the third of a series Micky Darlin' Victor Kelleher, 1995 Reissue of a novel first published in 1992 dealing with a series of incidents in the lives of an unhappy and wild Irish family living in poverty in London seen through the eyes of a young grandson Children's Book Review Index 1981 Cumulative Gary C. Tarbert, 1983-05 Something about the Author Diane Telgen, 1993-12 Series covers individuals ranging from established award winners to authors and illustrators who are just beginning their careers Entries cover personal life career writings and works in progress adaptations additional sources and photographs Bush, City, Cyberspace John Foster, Ern Finnis, Maureen Nimon, 2005-06-01 Aimed at academic professional and general readers Bush city cyberspace provides a snapshot of the state of Australian children's and adolescent literature in the early twenty first century and an insight into its history In doing so it promotes a sense of where Australian literature for young people may be going and captures a literary and critical mood with which readers in Australia and beyond will identify The title of the work is intended to capture the fact that the field has changed dramatically in the century and a half that Australian children's literature has existed from the bush myths and heroism that inform the past and the present through the recognition that the vast majority of authors and readers live in cities to the third wave of cyberliterature that incorporates multimedia hypertext weblinks and e books none of which lessens the enduring enthusiasm of practitioners and readers for books Bush city cyberspace is not meant to be an encyclopedic volume Rather well known recent and or award winning works have been emphasised with the addition of others where these help to illuminate particular points The book is similar in coverage and approach to Australian Children's Literature An Exploration of Genre and Theme written by the same three authors and published by the Centre for Information Studies in 1995 In the intervening period much has changed in the field notable examples including the blurring of the dividing line between quality and popular literature the blending of genres the rise of a truly indigenous literature the demise to a significant extent of Outbackery in fiction the acceptance of multiculturalism as the norm and the advent of the literature of cyberspace with new methods and the sheer speed of communication between writer and reader All these trends and others are reflected in this work Books in the Life of a Child Maurice Saxby, 1997-10-15 Books in the Life of a Child explores the value of books and reading in the stimulation of children's imagination and their fundamental importance in the development of language and true literacy. It examines not only the vast range of children's books available but also how to introduce young people to the joys of reading in the home, the school and in the community. The book has been written as a resource for all adults, especially teachers, student teachers, librarians and parents, and those who care about the value of literature for children. It is a comprehensive and critical guide with chapters on the history of children's literature and an analysis of its many forms and genres from poetry, fairytale, myth, legend and fantasy through realistic and historical fiction to humour, pulp fiction and information books.
