The Idea of the Novel in Europe, 1600-1800 Ioan Williams, 1979-05-24 The Idea of the Novel in Europe, 1600-1800 Ioan Williams, 2014-01-14 The Idea of the Novel in Europe, 1600-1800 Ioan Williams, 1979 Ritual and the Idea of Europe in Interwar Writing Professor Patrick R Query, 2013-01-28 While most critical studies of interwar literary politics have focused on nationalism Patrick Query makes a case that the idea of Europe intervenes in instances when the individual and the nation negotiate identity He examines the ways interwar writers use three European ritual forms verse drama bullfighting and Roman Catholic rite to articulate ideas of European cultural identity Within the growing discourse of globalization Query argues Europe presents a special though often overlooked case because it adds a mediating term between local and global His book is divided into three sections the first treats the verse dramas of T S Eliot W B Yeats and W H Auden the second discusses the uses of the Spanish bullfight in works by D H Lawrence Stephen Spender Jack Lindsay George Barker Cecil Day Lewis and others and the third explores the cross cultural impact of Catholic ritual in Graham Greene Evelyn Waugh and David Jones While all three ritual forms were frequently associated with the most conservative tendencies of the age Query shows that each had a remarkable political flexibility in the hands of interwar writers concerned with the idea of Europe

The Idea of Europe Shane Weller, 2021-06-03 This book offers a new critical history of the idea of Europe from classical antiquity to the present day

A History of European Thought in the Nineteenth Century: Scientific thought, 2 v John Theodore Merz, 1907 The Oxford Handbook of Theology and Modern European Thought Nicholas Adams, George Pattison, Graham Ward, 2013-02-28 Modern European thought describes a wide range of philosophies cultural programmes and political arguments developed in Europe in the period following the French Revolution Throughout this period many of the wide range of modernisms and anti modernisms had a distinctly religious and even theological character not least when religion was subjected to the harshest criticism Yet for all the breadth and complexity of modern European thought and in particular its relations to theology a distinct body of themes and approaches recurred in each generation Moreover many of the issues that took intellectual shape in Europe are now global rather than narrowly European and for good or ill they form part of Europe s bequest to the world from colonialism and the economic theories behind globalisation through to democracy to terrorism This volume attempts to identify and comment on some of the most important of these The thirty chapters are grouped into six thematic parts moving from questions of identity and the self through discussions of the human condition the age of revolution the world both natural and technological and knowledge methodologies concluding with a section looking explicitly at how major theological themes have developed in modern European thought The chapters engage with major thinkers including Kant Hegel Kierkegaard Heidegger Schleiermacher Nietzsche Dostoevsky Barth Rahner Tillich Bonhoeffer Sartre de Beauvoir Wittgenstein and Derrida amongst many others Taken together these new essays provide a rich and reflective overview of the interchange between theology philosophy and critical thought in Europe over the past two hundred years The Postcolonial Subject in Transit Delphine Fongang, 2018-01-19 The Postcolonial Subject in Transit presents in depth analyses of the complex transitional migratory identities evident in emerging African diasporic writings It provides insights into the hybridity of the migrant experience where the migrant struggles to negotiate new cultural spaces It shows that while some migrants successfully adapt and integrate into new Western locales others exist at the margins unable to fully negotiate cultural difference The diaspora becomes a space for opportunities and economic mobility as well as alienation and uncertainties This illuminates the heterogeneity of the African diasporic narrative expanding the dialogue of the diaspora from one of simply loss and melancholia to self realization and empowerment Rethinking Europe Gerard Delanty, Chris Rumford, 2005 The book examines major social transformations in Europe from the perspective of social theory It offers an intriguing alternative to studies of the EU which emphasise the replacement of the nation state by a supra national authority Author-catalogue of printed books in European languages. With a supplementary list of newspapers. 1904. 2 v Imperial Library, Calcutta, 1904 The Central European Observer , 1926 Central and northern Europe Hans Ferdinand Helmolt, 1907 A History of European Thought in the Nineteenth Century John Theodore Merz, 1914 Readings in European Literature Gerald Edwin SeBoyar, Gerald Edward Se Boyar, Rudolph Frederic Brosius, 1928 European Theories of the Drama Barrett Harper Clark, 1918 CONTEMPORARY EUROPEAN WRITERS WILLIAM A.
