The Ideological Weapons of Death Franz J. Hinkelammert,1986 The Ideological Weapons of Death Franz Josef Hinkelammert,1986 A Theology of the Drug War William A. Walker III,2019-12-05 This book is a political and theological reflection on the violence and injustice that has taken place in Mexico and Central America since 2006 as a result of the drug war In order to understand and respond to this conflict in the age of globalization William A Walker III combines the work of philosopher Enrique Dussel and theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar to develop a theology of the drug war that transcends both a Eurocentric conception of the world and a merely political account of salvation Walker also highlights examples of Christian and church based approaches to practicing neighborliness and resistance to drug trade related violence challenging both Christians and non Christians to participate in the creation of a more just and merciful society

Transforming Life P. Chung,2009-11-09 By re examining the central themes of Reformation theology Chung clearly and carefully describes the fundamental shape of Reformation thinking and introduces the reader to what was and is at stake in the Reformation s insistence on the centrality of the Gospel Reflecting Black Michael Eric Dyson,1993-01-01 Church and Ethical Responsibility in the Midst of World Economy Paul S Chung,2014-06-26 Magisterial in scope and scrupulous in its investigation and attribution of sources Church and Ethical Responsibility in the Midst of World Economy will take its place as an important document that contributes much in terms of prophetic praxis it challenges those who are comfortably complacent and unwilling to be disturbed Routledge International Handbook of Cosmopolitanism

Gaia and Climate Change Anne Primavesi, 2008-08-18 James Lovelock's Gaia theory revolutionized the understanding of our place and role in the global environment It is now accepted that our activities over the past two hundred years have contributed to and accelerated the extreme weather events associated with climate change The fact that those activities materialized for the most part from within Western Christian communities makes it imperative to assess and to change their theological climate one characterized by routine use of violent imperialist images of God The basis for change explored here is that of gift events particularly as evidenced in Jesus's life and sayings Its legacy of love of enemies and forgiveness offers a basis for nonviolent theological and practical approaches to our situatedness within the community of life These are also Gaian responses as they include foregoing a perception of ourselves as belonging to an elect group given power by God over earth's life support systems and over all those dependent on them whether human or more than human The degree to which we change this self perception will determine how we affect for good or ill not only the givenness of the climate in future but the givenness of all future life on earth

Spirit Outside the Gate Oscar García-Johnson, 2019-07-23 Oscar García Johnson explores a new grammar for the study of theology and mission in global Christianity especially in Latin America Moving to recover important elements in ancestral traditions of the Americas he discerns pneumatological continuity between the pre-Columbian and post-Columbian communities With an interdisciplinary narrative approach this work offers a constructive theology of mission for the church in global contexts

Have This Mind David Williams, 2007-08-30 This is an impressive in depth study of the concept of kenosis and its relation to Christian Theology That concept self emptying is central to a deep ethically related approach to understanding foundational religious themes so this volume is a very welcome contribution to the understanding of theology George Ellis professor of Mathematics University of Cape Town Through a deep and sound exegesis of the passage the writer takes the reader through several aspects of our daily life that has to be affected by the kenosis Seen through the lens of kenosis human rights ethics ministry towards the poor and all the social struggles of our time are brought to light and given a new and constructive dimension Dr Lubunga w Ehusa Evangelical Seminary of Southern Africa I would agree wholeheartedly with you when you point out that His kenosis should be the model and the motivation for Christian ethics The importance of this practical result of the kenosis can hardly be over emphasized especially in Christian South Africa Professor emeritus Deon Thom well informed broadly based strongly argued responsible in terms of conclusions an overall laudable piece of research I highly appreciate both the exegetical and the systematic aspects of the presentation You have a definite ability to draw lines together into an overall view That is Systematic Theology at its best Professor Adriano K nig formerly head of Systematic Theology at the University of South Africa Public Theology in an Age of World Christianity P. Chung, 2010-04-26 This book aims to rearticulate and reinterpret a Christian concept of God's mission and evangelization in light of the universal irregular and transversal horizon of God's narrative as it pertains to the realities of public sphere The Palgrave Handbook on Decoloniality in Asia Phoebe Zoe Maria U. Sanchez, Regletto Aldrich D. Imbong, Matthew Ming-tak Chew, Caroline M. Schöpf, 2025-05-02 This Handbook brings together a plethora of decolonial perspectives from and about Asian countries beyond Southeast Asia Complementing existing scholarship on decolonisation in Latin America and Africa emerging and established scholars from the Global North and the Global South cover politically urgent vital and underexplored topics from the social sciences and humanities An important compendium more than 25 original contributions bring debates happening in various parts of the world strongly into conversation with similar debates in the West where there has been little reciprocal exchange Bringing to the fore the importance of a paradigm shift within academia this first of its kind Handbook is useful for policy makers scholars and students of postcolonial and decolonial studies sociology development studies and social movements Shifting Locations and Reshaping Methods Ulrich Winkler, Henry Jansen, 2018 This collection of essays presents the reader with a fine overview and detailed discussion on the impact of interreligious studies and intercultural theology on methods and methodologies New fields of study require new methods and methodologies and although these two new fields draw from a host of existing other disciplines and areas of thought and are almost transdisciplinary in nature they nonetheless influence existing methodologies and help them evolve in new directions Reclaiming the Radical Economic Message of Luke David D. M. King, 2022-05-13 No canonical Gospel is more concerned with wealth and poverty than Luke A centuries long debate rages over just how revolutionary Luke's message is This book seeks to recover Luke's radical economic message to place it in its ancient context and to tease out its prophetic implications for today Luke has a radical message of good news for the poor and resistance to wealth God is shown to favor the poor championing their struggle for justice while condemning the rich and recommending a sweeping disposal of wealth for the benefit of the poor This represents a distinct break from the ethics of the Roman Empire and a profound challenge to modern economic systems Generations of interpreters have worked to file down Luke's sharp edges from scribes copying ancient manuscripts to early Christian authors to contemporary scholars Such domestication disfigures the gospel silencing its critique of an economic system whose unremitting drive for profit and economic growth continues to widen the gap between rich and poor while threatening life altering environmental change It is time to reclaim the bracing prophetic call of Luke s economic message that warns against the destructive power of wealth and insists on justice for the poor and marginalized

The Emergence of Sin Matthew Croasmun,2017 Commentators have long argued about whether to read Paul s personification of Sin in Romans literally or figuratively Matthew Croasmun suggests both that the cosmic power Sin is nothing more than an emergent feature of a vast network of human transgression and that this power is nevertheless a real person On the Banks of Ganges Felix Wilfred,2002 Not Yet Jamie Owen Daniel,Tom Moylan,1997-07-17 The essays gathered here recommend the work of Ernest Bloch as a challenge to older models of historical materialism and utopian emancipation and give specific examples of how Bloch s work can contribute to current debates about utopia nationalism collective memory and the complex relationship between ideology and everyday life The Future of Liberation

Theology Ivan Petrella,2017-03-02 The Future of Liberation Theology envisions a radical new direction for Latin American liberation theology One of a new generation of Latin American theologians Ivan Petrella shows that despite the current dominance of end of history ideology liberation theologians need not abandon their belief that the theological rereading of Christianity must be linked to the development of historical projects models of political and economic organization that would replace an unjust status quo In the absence of historical projects liberation theology currently finds itself unable to move beyond merely talking about liberation toward actually enacting it in society Providing a bold new interpretation of the current state and potential future of liberation theology Ivan Petrella brings together original research on the movement with developments in political theory critical legal theory and political economy to reconstruct liberation theology s understanding of theology democracy and capitalism The result is the recovery of historical projects thus allowing liberation theologians to once again place the reality of liberation and not just the promise at the forefront of their task Latin American

Liberation Theology David Tombs,2021-11-08 David Tombs offers an accessible introduction to the theological challenges raised by Latin American Liberation and a new contribution to how these challenges might be understood as a chronological sequence Liberation theology emerged in the 1960s in Latin America and thrived until it reached a crisis in the 1990s This work traces the distinct developments in thought through the decades thus presenting a contextual theology The book is divided into five main sections the historical role of the church from Columbus s arrival in 1492 until the Cuban revolution of 1959 the reform and renewal decade of the 1960s the transitional decade of the 1970s the revision and redirection of liberation theology in the 1980s and a crisis of relevance in the 1990s This book offers insights into liberation theology s profound contributions for any socially engaged theology of the future and is crucial to understanding liberation theology and its legacies This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details
