The Idols of Death and the God of Life Pablo Richard, Liberation Theologies Ronald G. Musto, 2020-11-25 First Published in 1991 The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology mostly in book form available in English It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography Resurrecting the Death of God Daniel J. Peterson, G. Michael Zbaraschuk, 2014-04-11 In 1966 an infamous Time magazine cover asked Is God Dead and brought the ideas of theologians William Hamilton and Thomas J J Altizer to the wider public In the years that followed both men suffered professionally and there was no notable increase to the small number of thinkers considered death of God theologians Meanwhile Christian fundamentalism staged a striking comeback in the United States Yet death of God or radical theology has had an ongoing influence on contemporary theology and philosophy Contributors to this book explore the origins influence and legacy of radical theology and go on to take it in new directions In a time when fundamentalism is the greatest religious temptation this volume makes the case for the necessity of resurrecting the death of God From Question to Quest Santiago Sia, 2010-04-16 In facing up to life and its challenges questions inevitably arise Different situations provoke specific questions mostly trivial but frequently fundamental always seeking some kind of answer While the transition from question to quest is a rather natural one for human beings and the need for answers is a serious human demand the quest itself is significant precisely because it is a human task This book offers a number of literary philosophical enquiries into these challenges of life But it is the one set of quests stimulated deepened and widened by literature and philosophy as well as developed in a literary and philosophical way Among the topics covered are the search for meaning in life the quest for wisdom the aim of moral striving the need for community life the importance of relationships the challenge of suffering the desire for deliverance and the longing for immortality The Christian Message as Vision and Mission Santiago Sia, 2017-08-21 With all the messages that come our way through social media and in sophisticated gadgets does the Christian message of love hope and redemption still have an importance and relevance What does it have to offer to enable us to meet the various challenges which beset present day living Today there is an even greater and more urgent need to focus on it After all the Christian message is not merely information because it is also about a way of life Neither is it simply an exhortation since it also presents a definite goal This book provides some philosophical considerations which underpin its central teaching While aware of its richness and complexity the essays concentrate on the Christian message insofar as it provides a vision for humanity and articulates a mission to implement it The book serves to establish points of encounter rather than points of departure in order to contribute to the ongoing reflection by those who believe in that message as well as to the debates with those who oppose it The Amnesty of Grace Elsa Tamez,2002-01-14

 Leading experts analyze the innovative work of theologian Dorothee Soelle Our Ninety-Five Theses Alberto García, Justo González, 2016-12-01 Just as in the days of Luther we are living in a world undergoing enormous changes in the social political economic religious cultural and technological arenas As in the times of the monk from Wittenberg these changes also challenge and force the Church to rethink and transform itself For this reason the Association for Hispanic Theological Education AETH for its name in Spanish considers the publication of this book very relevant Because it is about commemorating what happened five centuries ago as much as about reliving it in light of our realities In a very particular way this book is an invitation to the Church in general and to the Hispanic Church in particular not to forget thesis 55 raised by the authors We are not helpless victims but God's people called to be instrument of his grace justice and reconciliation Saving Memory and the Body of Christ Timothy F. Sedgwick, 2024-06-15 For Christians memories of God given in the Christian Bible are juxtaposed echoed and expanded within and outside Christian communities of faith In Saving Memory and the Body of Christ Sedgwick argues Christians are attuned to the polyphony that is the voice of God calling those who have ears to hear into the love and grace of God in life together Sharing together in the Eucharist he goes on to describe Christians remember celebrate and are drawn into life in God as imaged in the Greek word kenosis meaning emptying oneself Christian faith is accordingly what the Latin word credo means to give one's heart to God hence to give oneself in faith and fidelity to the memory of God In the memory of God Christian faith is a practical piety In prayer and worship Christians remember and respond to the call of God to life lived in the grace and love of God in the glory of creation in birth and death in sickness and health in compassion and care for one another in creation This is the birth of moral conscience hearing in the voice of others what claims those who have faith and calls for response Across Borders Joerg Rieger, 2013-06-20 While work in theology and religious studies by scholars in Latin America and by Latino scholars in the United States has made substantial contributions to the current scholarship in the field there are few projects where scholars from these various contexts are working together Across Borders Latin Perspectives in the Americas Reshaping Religion Theology and Life is unique as it brings leading scholars from both worlds into the conversation The chapters of this book deal with the complexities of solidarity the intersections of the popular and the religious the example of Afro-Cubanisms the meaning of popular liberation struggles Hispanic identity formation at the U.S. border and the unique promise of studying religion and theology in the tensions between North and South in the Americas Confronting the Mystery of God Gaspar Martinez, 2002-05-13 A highly insightful study of three major movements in Roman Catholic theology over the past thirty years This fascinating work of theological scholarship offers an exceptionally broad scope and powerfully unifying theme Gaspar Martinez first offers penetrating interpretations of three major contemporary theologians working on three continents in quite dissimilar historical cultural social and economic situations Then he goes on to illustrate how Johannes

Metz Gustavo GutiTrrez and David Tracy each had a tense ongoing relationship to the mid twentieth century theologians and movements that formed them Karl Rahner nouvelle theologie and Bernard Lonergan respectively Martinez brilliantly contextualizes each of these thinkers In broad strokes he sketches postwar Germany postcolonial Peru and the American century and shows how each man was formed by his era He also examines the lines of influence and relationship between these theologians and some of their nontheological contemporaries Metz and Adorno Bloch and Benjamin GutiTrrez and Paulo Freire JosT Carlos Mariategui and the novelist JosT Marfa Arguedas and Tracy and thinkers from Eliade and Ricoeur to Gadamer and Derrida Martinez convincingly illustrates how each of these theologians in recent years has focused more directly on the mystery of God entailing greater emphasis on spirituality and mysticism with the consequence that the more properly theological their theologies have become the more they have become negative theologies The Experiment Hope Jurgen Moltmann, 2003-10-09 Over the past three decades as fads in theology have come and gone the work of Jurgen Moltmann has assumed a position of enduring vitality Theology of Hope The Church in the Power of the Spirit and The Crucified God and rest of Moltmann's core corpus have formed a watershed which supplies one of the very few viable theologies still relevant to the practice of Christians in the world The fourteen essays in this book have lasting value in that they portray the development of the author's thought in relation to our ever changing historical and social situation Theology ethics philosophy of religion and politics coalesce as the author raises the basic issue of our time To scan the table of contents and see such titles as The Crucified God and the Apathetic Man Racism and the Right to Resist Bringing Peace to a Divided World and Introduction to the Theology of Hope is to be placed in the midst of exciting and enduring Christian thought The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn, 2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind's eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media
