The Classical Legacy of Gilbert Highet Robert J. Ball, 2021-06-15 Gilbert Highet 1906 1978 was one of Columbia University's greatest teachers and in his day the most celebrated classical scholar in America One may regard his life and career as both extraordinary and controversial Now over forty years after his death a fresh retrospect seems appropriate as a way of presenting new information about him and evaluating his enduring classical legacy for the twenty first century reader This fully documented biographical appreciation of Highet's life and work capped by fully updated bibliographies of publications by him and about him offers a long overdue official life of this unique and towering figure

Art Education Albert William Levi, Ralph Alexander Smith, 1991 Recommending that art be taught as a humanity this volume provides a philosophical rationale for the idea of discipline based art education Levi and Smith discuss topics ranging over both the public and private aspects of art the disciplines of artistic creation art history art criticism and aesthetics and curriculum proposals featuring five phases of aesthetic learning While there is no consensus on how the various components of aesthetic learning should be presented in order to accomplish the goals of discipline based art education the authors point out that progress toward those goals will require that those who design art education programs bring an understanding of the four disciplines to their work The introductory volume of a five volume series this book will appeal to elementary and secondary art teachers those who prepare teachers at the college level and museum educators
