Middle Persian text known as Khusro and the Page one of the most famous kings of the ancient Iranian world Khusro I Anushirwan is called haft kiswar xawad y the King of the Seven Climes This title harkens back to at least the Achaemenid period when it was in fact used and even further back to a Zoroastrian Avestan world view From the earliest Iranian hymns those of the G th s of Zarathushtra through the Younger Avesta and later Pahlavi writings it is known that the ancient Iranians divided the world into seven climes or regions Indeed at some point there was even an aspiration that this world should be ruled by a single king Consequently the title of the King of the Seven Climes used by Khusro I in the sixth century CE suggests the most ambitious imperial vision that one would find in the literary tradition of the ancient Iranian world

Taking this as a point of departure the present book aims to be a survey of the dynasties and rulers who thought of going beyond their own surroundings to forge larger polities within the Iranian realm This volume was previously published by the Jordan Center for Persian Studies University of California Irvine Ghost in the Pact (Ghost Exile #8) Jonathan
