The Informed Reader:

The Informed Reader Charles Bazerman, 1989 Is There a Text in This Class? Stanley Fish, 1982-04-15 Stanley Fish is one of America's most stimulating literary theorists. In this book he undertakes a reexamination of some of criticism's most basic assumptions. He penetrates to the core of the modern debate about interpretation, explodes numerous misleading formulations, and offers a proposal for a new way of thinking about the way we read. Let the Reader Understand Robert M. Fowler, 2001-01-01 Robert Fowler's groundbreaking method, reader response criticism, as a strategy for reading the Gospel of Mark invites contemporary readers to participating in making the meaning of the Gospel Now available in paperback. Readers and Reading Andrew Bennett, 2014-07-15 Much literary criticism focuses on literary producers and their products, but an important part of such work considers the end user, the reader. It asks such questions as: how far can the author condition the response of the reader, and how much does the reader create the meaning of a text? Dr. Bennett's collection includes important essays from such writers and critics as Wolfgang Iser, Mary Jacobus, Roger Chartier, Michel de Certeau, Shoshana Felman, Maurice Blanchot, Paul de Man, and Yves Bonnefoy. It looks in turn at deconstructionist, feminist, new historicist, and psychoanalytical responses to the school. The book then considers the act of reading itself, discussing such issues as the uniqueness of any reading and the difficulties involved in its analysis. A Rhetoric of Doing Stephen Paul Witte, Neil Nakadate, Roger Dennis Cherry, 1992 Concerned with both the nature and the practice of discourse, the eighteen essays collected here treat rhetoric as a dynamic enterprise of inquiry, exploration, and application, and in doing so reflect James L. Kinneavy's firm belief in the vital relationship between theory and practice, his commitment to a spirit of accommodation and assimilation that promotes the development of ever more powerful theories and ever more useful practices. A thorough introduction provides the reader with clear summaries of the essays by leading edge theorists, researchers, and teachers of writing and rhetoric. A field context for the ideas presented in this book is provided through the division of the various chapters into four major sections that focus on classical rhetoric and rhetorical theory in historical contexts, on dimensions of discourse theory, aspects of discourse communities, and the sorts of knowledge people access and use in producing written texts, on writing in school-related contexts, and on several dimensions of nonacademic writing. A fifth section contains a bibliographic survey and an appreciation of James Kinneavy's work. The exceptional range of these essays makes A Rhetoric of Doing an ecumenical examination of the current state of mind in rhetoric and written communication, a survey and description of what discourse and those in the field of discourse are in fact doing. Writing Jude Reese, 2021-08-30 Writing Jude is a practical application of literary theory to the Epistle of Jude. As such, it explores the nature of language, reading, and interpretation. This is the first such study to be undertaken with an Epistle. Writing Jude contains a chapter on each of the elements that affect interpretation: reader, text, and author. In these broad categories, the book examines various contemporary literary theories and their application to the Epistle of Jude. The book provides a clear

introduction to some of the most well known literary theories of the twentieth century and provides a demonstration of those theories in a particular text This study breaks new ground in the understanding of both the Epistle of Jude and the application of literary theory to Epistles in general Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie, 2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense The Informed Air Muriel Spark, 2013-04-15 Now in paperback here are the sparkling essays of Muriel Spark the writer of the best sentences in English The New Yorker A fantastic essayist the inimitable Muriel Spark addresses here the writing life cats favorite writers the Bront s T S Eliot Robert Burns Mary Shelley love Piero della Francesca life in wartime London and in glamorous Hollywood on the Tiber 1960s Rome faith and parties on her first New Year s Eve as a baby sipping her mother s sherry I always loved a party No one was as fearless and original TLS as Muriel Spark who believed that art is an act of daring Here she glides from the mysteries of Job s sufferings to Dame Edith Sitwell s cocktail advice about how to handle a nasty publisher My dear she said you must acquire a pair of lorgnettes make an occasion to see that man again focus the glasses on him and sit looking at him through them as if he was an insect Just look and look Latinx Literature Unbound Ralph E. Rodriguez, 2018-05-08 Since the 1990s there has been unparalleled growth in the literary output from an ever more diverse group of Latinx writers Extant criticism however has yet to catch up with the diversity of writers we label Latinx and the range of themes about which they write Little sustained scholarly attention has been paid moreover to the very category under which we group this literature Latinx Literature Unbound thus begins with a fundamental question What does it mean to label a work of literature or an entire corpus of literature Latinx From this question others emerge What does Latinx allow or predispose us to see and what does it preclude us from seeing If the grouping which brings together a heterogeneous collection of people under a seemingly homogeneous label tells us something meaningful is there a poetics we can develop that would facilitate our analysis of this literature In answering these questions Latinx Literature Unbound frees Latinx literature from taken for granted critical assumptions about identity and theme It argues that there may be more salubrious taxonomies than Latinx for organizing and analyzing this literature Privileging the act of reading as a temporal meaning making event Ralph E Rodriguez argues that genre may be a more durable category for analyzing this literature and suggests new ways we might proceed with future studies of the writing we have come to identify as Latinx But Their Faces Were All Looking Up Eric M. Vanden Eykel, 2016-12-01 This study of the Protevangelium of James explores the interrelationship of authors readers texts and meaning Its central aim is to better understand how the process of repetition gave rise to the narratives of the early Christian movement and how that process continued to fuel the creativity and imagination of future generations Divided into three parts Vanden Eykel addresses first specific episodes in the life of the Virgin consisting of Mary's childhood in the Jerusalem temple PJ 7-9 her spinning thread for the temple veil PJ 10-12 and Jesus' birth in a cave outside Bethlehem PJ 17-20 The three episodes present a uniform picture of how the reader's discernment of intertexts can generate new layers of meaning and that these layers may reveal new aspects of the author's meaning some of which the author may not have anticipated

The Imitation of Christ

Thomas à Kempis, 2017-08-11 What would Jesus do That's the primary question Thomas Kempis answers in his universally acclaimed work The Imitation of Christ In 114 short chapters organized into four simple parts this handbook on the spiritual life offers guidance on dozens of topics such as resisting temptation avoiding hasty judgments putting up with others' faults remembering God's many blessings self-surrender minding our own business and performing humble works William Creasy succeeds in creating a dramatically different interpretation of The Imitation of Christ by working through its historical cultural and linguistic contexts This book inspired the likes of St Thomas More St Ignatius of Loyola Thérèse of Lisieux Dorothy Day and Thomas Merton Along with such classics as Augustine's Confessions Teresa of Avila's Interior Castle and Ignatius's Spiritual Exercises The Imitation of Christ continues to confront each generation of readers with the perennial truths of the Gospel

Contemporary Readings in the Philosophy of Literature David Davies, Carl Matheson, 2008-03-06

What if anything distinguishes works of fiction such as Hamlet and Madame Bovary from biographies news reports or office bulletins Is there a right way to interpret fiction Should we link interpretation to the author's intention Ought our moral unease with works that betray sadistic sexist or racist elements lower our judgments of their aesthetic worth And what when it comes down to it is literature The readings in this collection bring together some of the most important recent work in the philosophy of literature by philosophers such as Martha Nussbaum John Searle and David Lewis The readings explore philosophical issues such as the nature of fiction the status of the author the act of interpretation the role of the emotions in the act of reading the aesthetic and moral value of literary works and other topics central to the philosophy of literature

Creating Identity Jayashree Kamblé, 2023-04-11 While the world often categorizes women in reductive false binaries careerist versus mother feminine versus fierce romance novels a unique form of the love story offer an imaginative space of mingled alternatives for a heroine on her journey to selfhood In Creating Identity Jayashree Kamblé examines the romance genre with its sensile flexibility in retaining what audiences find desirable and discarding what is not by asking an important question Who is the romance heroine and what does she want To find the answer Kamblé explores how heroines in ten novels reject societal labels and instead remake themselves on their own terms with their own agency Using a truly intersectional approach Kamblé combines gender and sexuality Marxism critical race theory and literary criticism to survey various aspects of heroines' identities such as sexuality gender work citizenship and race Ideal for readers interested in gender studies and literary criticism Creating Identity highlights a genre in which heroines do not accept that independence and strong loving relationships are mutually exclusive but instead demand both echoing the call from the very readers who have made this genre so popular Readers in History James L. Machor, 1993 Nineteenth century America witnesses an unprecedented rise in reading activity as a result of increasing literacy advances in printing and book production and improvements in transporting printed material As the act of reading took on new cultural and intellectual significance American writers had to adjust to changes in their relationship with a growing audience Calling for a new emphasis on historical analysis Readers in History reconsiders reader response and reception approaches to the shifting contexts of reading in nineteenth century America James L Machor and his contributors dispute the essentializing tendency of much reader response criticism to date arguing that reading and the textual construction of audience can best be understood in light of historically specific interpretive practices ideological frames and social conditions Employing a variety of perspectives and methods including feminism deconstruction and cultural criticism the essays in this volume demonstrate the importance of historical inquiry for exploring the dynamics of audience engagement Interpretive Conventions Steven Mailloux, 2018-03-15 In Interpretive Conventions Steven Mailloux provides a general introduction to reader response criticism while developing his own specific reader oriented approach to literature He examines five influential theories of the reading process those of Stanley Fish Jonathan Culler Wolfgang Iser Norman Holland and David Bleich He goes on to argue the need for a more comprehensive reader response criticism based on a consistent social model of reading He develops such a reading model and also discusses American textual editing and literary history Reporting of Social Science in the National Media Carol Weiss, Eleanor Singer, 1988-08-04 Policy makers as well as the general public are often unaware of social science research until a story about it appears in the national media Even in official Washington a staffer's report on social research may go unnoticed while a report in the Washington Post receives immediate attention This study takes a systematic and revealing look at social science reporting How do journalists hear about social science and why do they select certain stories to cover and not others How do journalistic standards for selection compare with social scientists' own judgments of merit How do reporters attempt to ensure accuracy and how freely do they introduce their own interpretations of social science findings How satisfied are social scientists with the selection and accuracy of social science news In Part I Carol H Weiss addresses these questions on the basis of personal interviews with social scientists and the journalists who wrote about their work Part II by Eleanor Singer is based on an analysis of media content itself and compares social science reporting over time between 1970 and 1982 and across media newspapers newsmagazines television These two complementary perspectives combine to produce a thorough realistic assessment of the way social science moves out of the academy and into the world of news The Imitation of Christ William C. Creasy, 2015-09-15 The Imitation of Christ has appeared in more editions and in more languages than any other book except the Bible Samuel Johnson once remarked to Bowell that it must be a good book as the world has opened its arms to receive it Others have praised it as well including Thomas Carlyle George Eliot Thomas De Quincey and Matthew Arnold Among the religious St Ignatius Loyola translated it and Pope John Paul I was said to have been reading it the night that he died It has been standard fare in religious training and personal devotion for centuries Yet today few people know the Imitation and those who do more often than not think it hopelessly out of date a pre Vatican II relic full of contempt for the world and self loathing It is a curious state of affairs and one that reveals more about a contemporary audience s response to the book than it does about the book itself When a contemporary reader encounters a line such as this is the highest wisdom through contempt of the world to aspire to the kingdom of heaven his response is a very different one from that of a fifteenth or nineteenth century reader For an informed response as Stanley Fish would say to the contemptus mundi theme the reader must draw deeply on a vast complex of literary linguistic historical and theological knowledge Creasy s translation of the Imitation strives to recreate a text that provides an analogous experience to that of the fifteenth century reader Relying heavily on reader response theory he incorporates an informed reader s response into the text itself Where possible the text echoes both the deep structure and the surface structure of the Latin even to the point of replicating sentence structures and rhetorical devices while avoiding any distortion of the reader s experience Although the language and style of his translation has been crafted for modern readers the fervor and power of the original text have not been lost Dr Creasy s work on the Imitation of Christ has become the standard translation of this spiritual classic bringing it to life for a new generation of readers Book jacket American Literary Criticism Since the 1930s Vincent B. Leitch, 2009-09-10

American Literary Criticism Since the 1930s fully updates Vincent B Leitch s classic book American Literary Criticism from the 30s to the 80s following the development of the American academy right up to the present day Updated throughout and with a brand new chapter this second edition provides a critical history of American literary theory and practice discussing the impact of major schools and movements examines the social and cultural background to literary research considering the role of key theories and practices provides profiles of major figures and influential texts outlining the connections among theorists presents a new chapter on developments since the 1980s including discussions of feminist queer postcolonial and ethnic criticism Comprehensive and engaging this book offers a crucial overview of the development of literary studies in American universities and a springboard to further research for all those interested in the development and study of Literature Concepts in Composition Irene L. Clark, 2011-09 A textbook for composition pedagogy courses It focuses on scholarship in rhetoric and composition that has influenced classroom teaching in order to foster reflection on how theory impacts practice Reading Hosea in Achaemenid Yehud James M. Trotter, 2002-01-01 An examination of the final form of Hosea within the socio historical context of Persian period Judah making use of insights from historical critical and reader oriented perspectives The amalgamation of these two seemingly divergent approaches creates a framework within which the setting and interpretive practices of both the modern critic and the ancient reader s can be taken seriously The resulting examination proposes a reading of Hosea shaped as far as possible by the reading conventions and socio religious concerns of Persian period Judahites
