Intermountain West Reed H. Blake, 2001-09-01 Pioneers in the Attic Sara M. Patterson, 2020 Pioneers in the Attic explores the way in which narratives of place came to establish Mormon identity in the twentieth and twenty first centuries and how early understandings of gathering and Zion encouraged individuals to migrate and live communally in the Great Basin region of the American West Patterson looks at how this history has led to a modern day community that grounds itself in the memorialization of early Mormon pioneer identity Islands of Green, 1968 The Story of Religion in America James P. Byrd, James Hudnut-Beumler, 2021-11-30 Written primarily for undergraduate classes in American religious history and organized chronologically this new textbook presents the broad scope of the story of religion in the American colonies and the United States While following certain central narratives including the long shadow of Puritanism the competition between revival and reason and the defining role of racial and ethnic diversity the book tells the story of American religion in all its historical and moral complexity To appeal to its broad range of readers this textbook includes charts timelines and suggestions for primary source documents that will lead readers into a deeper engagement with the material Unlike similar history books The Story of Religion in America pays careful attention to balancing the story of Christianity with the central contributions of other religions Winged with Longing for Better Things Sylvia Sweeney, 2019-11-17 A Lenten devotional written from an eco feminist perspective Rather than classical penitence this book emphasizes intercession solidarity and preparation Its aim is to help readers learn to view the world incarnationally and sacramentally In rejecting one's own embodiment and the natural world the earth is being irreparably harmed by our destructive actions The book invites readers to move beyond sympathy for those in strife into action and advocacy on the behalf of the earth and its less powerful inhabitants Photographs and poetry enhance the daily devotional readings Utah Payroll Builder, 1925 People, Places and Landscapes Richard S.
