authors respond to the exposure of limits to mainstream contemporary scholarship in the wake of the onset of the Global Financial Crisis and provide a comprehensive overview of the field of Critical International Political Economy Problematizing socioeconomic and political structures and considering these as potentially transitory and subject to change the contributors aim not simply to understand a world of conflict but furthermore to uncover the ways in which purportedly objective analyses reflect the interests of those in positions of privilege and power

Copyright Law Desk Book Akhil Prasad, Aditi Agarwala, Akhil Prasad, 2009 Human Rights and Intellectual Property Rights Mpasi Sinjela, 2007-11-30 This collection offers an overview of the issues involved concerning the interface between human rights and intellectual property rights IPRs It makes clear that two schools of thought have developed The first school maintains that human rights and IPRs are in fundamental conflict Strong protection of IP is incompatible with human rights obligations Thus for resolving the conflict between the two it is suggested that human rights should always prevail over IPRs Whereas the second school of thought asserts that human rights and IPRs pursue the same aim that is to define the appropriate scope of private monopoly power to create incentives for authors and inventors while ensuring that the public has adequate access to the fruits of their efforts Accordingly they argue human rights and IP are compatible However what is needed is to strike a balance between the provision of incentives to innovate and public access to products of that innovation This collection explores this balance and the extent to which human rights standards can influence the interpretation of IP norms for example in defining the scope of IPRs The discussion on the relationship of human rights and IPRs is an ongoing one this volume makes a valuable contribution to the debate and will further stimulate the interest to explore and address these complex and challenging issues This is the second volume in The Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law New Authors series which contains the best theses from the human rights masters programmes in Lund and Venice Regulation (EU) NO 608/2013 Concerning Customs Enforcement Of Intellectual Property Rights Olivier Vrins, 2024-04-17 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this monograph provides a survey and analysis of the rules concerning Regulation EU No 608 2013 Concerning Customs Enforcement of Intellectual Property Rights It covers every type of intellectual property right in depth copyright and
