Advanced Thought and Occult Digest ,1920 Sermons in All Souls Monthly, 1888-1891 Richard Heber Newman,1888 SACRED SONG: SURVIVAL: SALVATION: IN THE AFRICAN AMERICAN RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE Kathryn Baker Kemp,2022-08-01

Enslaved Africans brought their music and religion with them to America. They adapted their spiritual worldview into the existing Christian framework for survival. The God of the oppressor was transformed into the God of liberation and justice. Salvation became the conduit for survival. Sacred song was embedded with African spirituality and African American theology to create a religious experience from the seventeenth century to the twentieth century that sustained African American people and became established forms of praise and worship. The Civil Rights movement changed the religious reality of African American people. Sacred song in the twenty-first century has many challenges. Will the legacy and heritage of sacred song survive?

Ancient Inca Alan L. Kolata, 2013-04-08 This book provides a detailed account of the Inca Empire describing its history, society, economy, religion, and politics, but most importantly, the way it was managed. How did the Inca wield political power? What economic strategies did the Inca pursue in order to create the largest native empire in the Western Hemisphere? The book offers university students, scholars, and the general public a sophisticated new interpretation of Inca power, politics, and especially the role of religion in shaping an imperial world of great ethnic, social, and cultural diversity.

Writing Around the Ancient Mediterranean Philippa M. Steele, Philip J. Boyes, 2022-10-06 Writing in the ancient Mediterranean existed against a backdrop of very high levels of interaction and contact. In the societies around its shores, writing was a dynamic practice that could serve many purposes: from a tool used by elites to control resources and establish their power bases to a symbol of local identity and a means of conveying complex information and ideas. This volume presents a group of papers by members of the Contexts of and Relations between Early Writing Systems (CREWS) research team and visiting fellows, offering a range of different perspectives and approaches to problems of writing in the ancient Mediterranean. They focus on practices, viewing writing as something that people do within a wider social and cultural context, and on adaptations, considering the ways in which writing changed and was changed by the people using it.

Antiquity in Gotham Elizabeth Macaulay-Lewis, 2021-03-23 The first detailed study of Neo-Antique architecture applies an archaeological lens to the study of New York City's structures. Since the city's inception, New Yorkers have deliberately and purposefully engaged with ancient architecture to design and erect many of its most iconic buildings and monuments, including Grand Central Terminal and the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Arch in Brooklyn, as well as forgotten gems such as Snug Harbor on Staten Island and the Gould Memorial Library in the Bronx. Antiquity in Gotham interprets the various ways ancient architecture was re-conceived in New York City from the eighteenth century to the early twenty-first century. Contextualizing New York's Neo-Antique architecture within larger American architectural trends, author Elizabeth Macaulay-Lewis applies an archaeological lens to the study of the New York buildings that incorporated these various models in their design, bringing together these diverse sources of inspiration into a single continuum. Antiquity in Gotham explores how ancient architecture communicated the political ideals of the new republic through the adaptation of Greek and Roman architecture, how Egyptian temples conveyed the city's new technological achievements and how the ancient Near East served many artistic masters decorating the interiors of glitzy Gilded Age restaurants and the tops of skyscrapers Rather than classifying neo classical and Greek Revival Egyptianizing and architecture inspired by the ancient Near East into distinct categories Macaulay Lewis applies the Neo Antique framework that considers the similarities and differences intellectually conceptually and chronologically among the reception of these different architectural traditions This fundamentally interdisciplinary project draws upon all available evidence and archival materials such as the letters and memos of architects and their patrons and the commentary in contemporary newspapers and magazines to provide a lively multi dimensional analysis that examines not only the city s ancient buildings and rooms themselves but also how New Yorkers envisaged them lived in them talked about them and reacted to them Antiquity offered New Yorkers architecture with flexible aesthetic functional cultural and intellectual resonances whether it be the democratic ideals of Periclean Athens the technological might of Pharaonic Egypt or the majesty of Imperial Rome The result of these dialogues with ancient architectural forms was the creation of innovative architecture that has defined New York City s skyline throughout its history
