The Imperial Shah:

The Imperial Shah Gérard de Villiers, Bernard Touchais, Annick de Villiers, 1976-01-01 The Shah's Iran - Rise and Fall Abdolreza Ansari, 2016-11-28 A chance encounter diverted Abdolreza Ansari from completing his PHD in the US and set him on a professional journey which mirrored the prolific rise and the precipitous fall of the regime of Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi of Iran. Ansari's government career took off when he became Iran's Treasurer General at the age of 32. In this role he restructured the fiscal management of the country and revamped its social security system. He was appointed Minister of Labor and Social Affairs at 34 where he created the Workers Welfare Bank to support the labour force of the country. As Iran was about to enter a period of rapid development, Ansari was called upon to take charge of the largest development project of the time: the construction of the Dez Dam in the oil-rich province of Khuzestan. Subsequently, Ansari was appointed Minister of Interior where he conducted national parliamentary and city council elections in a single day for the first time in Iran's history. His plan for the urban rehabilitation of towns and population centres continues to be the basis for municipal governance to this day. Ansari's political career was derailed following a cabinet reshuffle. However, he was hand-picked by the Shah to manage the many charitable organizations headed by the monarch's twin sister, Princess Ashraf Pahlavi. When the Iranian government began preparations for the commemoration of Iran's 2500 years of continued monarchical rule, he was appointed deputy head of the celebration's organizing committee. Prior to the 1979 Revolution, he initiated, introduced, and implemented the programmes of Protection of Families and the National Movement for Philanthropy. Ansari's proximity to the Iranian royal court, including the Shah and Princess Ashraf, and his encounters with a multitude of well-known personalities make these conversations a unique and valuable historical source for the pre-revolutionary period in Iran.

Unmasking Ideology in Imperial and Colonial Archaeology Bonnie Effros, Guolong Lai, 2018-12-31 This volume addresses the entanglement between archaeology, imperialism, colonialism, capitalism, and war. Popular sentiment in the West has tended to embrace the adventure rather than ponder the legacy of archaeological explorers; allegations by imperial powers of discovering archaeological sites or saving world heritage from neglect or destruction have often provided the pretext for expanding political influence. Consequently, citizens have often fallen victim to the imperial war machine, seeing their lands confiscated, their artifacts looted, and the ancient remains in their midst commercialized. Spanning the globe with case studies from East Asia, Siberia, Australia, North and South America, Europe, and Africa, sixteen contributions written by archaeologists, art historians, and historians from four continents offer unusual breadth and depth in the assessment of various claims to patrimonial heritage contextualized by the imperial and colonial ventures of the last two from 1953 to 1978 A Modern History of the Kurds David McDowall, 2021-03-25 David McDowall's ground breaking history of the Kurds from the 19th century to the present day documents the underlying dynamics of the Kurdish question. The division of the Kurdish people among the modern nation states of Iraq, Turkey, Syria and Iran and their struggle for national rights continues to influence the politics of the Middle East. Drawing extensively on primary sources including documents from The National Archive and interviews with prominent Kurds, the book examines the interplay of old and new aspects of the struggle, the importance of local rivalries and leadership within Kurdish society and the failure of modern states to respond to the challenge of Kurdish nationalism. In this new and revised edition, McDowall also analyses the momentous transformations affecting Kurdish socio-politics in the last 20 years. With updates throughout and substantial new material included, this fourth edition of the book reflects the developments in the field and the areas which have gained importance and understanding. This includes new analysis of the Kurdish experience in Syria, the role of political Islam in Kurdish society and Kurds involvement in Islamist Jihad and issues surrounding women and gender that were previously overlooked from the impact of the women's equality movement to how patriarchal practices within the Kurdish community still limit its progress. The foundation text for Kurdish Studies, this book highlights in detail the changing situation of the Kurds across the Middle East.

Advanced Study in the History of Modern India 1707-1813 Jaswant Lal Mehta, 2005-01-01 An analytical and critical account of the political history of early modern India from 1707 to 1813. The narrative shatters the contention of contemporary European writers that it was the dark age of Indian history characterised by political anarchy and misgovernment until the British brought it under their sway. The main thesis of the author is that the period was marked by two distinct phases: the first phase which lasted from 1707 to 1760 saw the rapid disintegration of the Mughal power and its replacement by the Maratha hegemony. Meanwhile, the English traders turned colonialists after consolidating their hold along the Indian seacoasts and conquest of Carnatic and Bengal challenged the Maratha hegemony. The second phase of developments was thus marked by the struggle for supremacy between these two powers. The author makes use of contemporary English and Marathi sources and the intensive researches of modern historians to portray a compact picture of their findings in the form of a text book for the benefit of the degree students. Historical facts are reinterpreted through illuminating expositions, refreshing characterisation of historic personalities and objective assessment of events and movements. Together with maps, a select bibliography, glossary and an elaborate index, the volume makes a rich contribution to the advancement of modern historical literature.

The History of Bengal Charles Stewart, 1847 The History of India, as Told by Its Own Historians Henry M. Elliot, 1877 The Spellbinders Ann Ruth Willner, 1985-03-01 Examines how charismatic leaders such as Mahatma Gandhi, Adolf Hitler and Franklin Roosevelt have come into power and produced great changes in their countries.
