The Indigenous World 20022003:

The Indigenous World 2002-2003 Diana Vinding, 2003 This book stands alone in its comprehensive presentation of current information affecting indigenous peoples in different regions throughout the world With contributions from both indigenous as well as non indigenous scholars and activists it provides an overview of recent developments that have impacted indigenous peoples in North America Central America South America Australia and the Pacific Asia Africa and elsewhere The Indigenous World 2002 2003 contains the most recent information available on international human rights efforts in addition to movements and changes in the indigenous organizational landscape This book serves as an update on the state of affairs of indigenous peoples around the world by region and country It also updates the human rights processes and other international processes such as the African Commission on Human and People's Rights Diana Vinding is an anthropologist and project coordinator at the International Work Group for Indigenous Affairs IWGIA

The Indigenous World 2006 Silje Stidsen, 2006-07 This yearbook covers the period January December 2005 IWGIA's yearbook is issued every year in May Its purpose is to provide an update on the state of affairs of indigenous peoples worldwide Thanks to the contributions from indigenous and non indigenous scholars and activists The Indigenous World 2006 gives an overview of crucial developments in 2005 that have impacted on the indigenous peoples of the world

BOOK JACKET The Indigenous World 2007 Silje Stidsen, 2007 This Yearbook covers the period January December 2006 and provides an update on the state of affairs of indigenous peoples worldwide through region and country reports covering most of the indigenous world and updated information on the international and regional processes relating to indigenous peoples Thanks to the contributions from indigenous and non indigenous scholars and activists The Indigenous World 2007 gives an overview of crucial developments in 2006 that have impacted on the indigenous peoples of the world The Indigenous World 2007 is a source of information and an indispensable tool for those who need to be informed about the most recent issues and developments within the indigenous world

The Indigenous World ,2007 Indigenism in Africa Felix Mukwiza Ndahinda, 2011-04-27 With a Foreword by Prof Asbjørn Eide a former Chairman of the UN Working Group on Indigenous Populations Chairman of the UN Working Group on Minorities President of the Advisory Committee on National Minorities of the Council of Europe Following the internationalization of the indigenous rights movement a growing number of African hunter gatherers pastoralists and other communities have channelled their claims for special legal protection through the global indigenous rights movement Their claims as the indigenous peoples of Africa are backed by many international actors such as indigenous rights activists donors and some academia However indigenous identification is contested by many African governments some members of non claimant communities and a number of anthropologists who have extensively interacted with claimant indigenous groups This book explores the sources as well as the legal and political implications of indigenous identification in Africa By highlighting the quasi inexistence of systematic and discursive rather than activist studies on the subject matter the analysis questions the appropriateness of this framework in efforts aimed at empowering claimant communities in inherently multiethnic African countries The book navigates between various disciplines in trying to better capture the phenomenon of indigenous rights advocacy in Africa The book is valuable reading for academics in law and all other social sciences such as anthropology sociology history political science as well as for economists It is also a useful tool for policy makers legal practitioners indigenous rights activists and a wide range of NGOs Dr Felix Mukwiza Ndahinda is Associate Professor at the International Victimology Institute Tilburg INTERVICT Tilburg University The Netherlands

Atlas of the World's Languages in Danger Christopher Moseley, 2010-01-01 Languages are not only tools of communication they also reflect a view of the world Languages are vehicles of value systems and cultural expressions and are an essential component of the living heritage of humanity Yet many of them are in danger of disappearing UNESCO's Atlas of the World's Languages in Danger tries to raise awareness on language endangerment This third edition has been completely revised and expanded to include new series of maps and new points of view

The Dark Sahara Jeremy Keenan, 2009-05-20 This book reveals the secret US agenda behind the war on terror in Africa and the shocking methods used to perpetuate the myth that the region is a hotbed of Islamic terrorism Africa expert Jeremy Keenan points to overwhelming evidence suggesting that from 2003 the Bush administration and Algerian government were responsible for hostage takings blamed on Islamic militants This created a permissive public attitude allowing the US to establish military bases in the region and pursue multiple imperial objectives in the name of security The shocking revelations in this book undermine the mainstream view of Africa as a legitimate second front in the war on terror

Indigenous Peoples and Poverty Robyn Eversole, John-Andrew McNeish, Alberto D. Cimaadamore, 2013-07-04 This book brings together two of today's leading concerns in development policy the urgent need to prioritize poverty reduction and the particular circumstances of indigenous peoples in both developing and industrialized countries The contributors analyse patterns of indigenous disadvantage worldwide the centrality of the right to self determination and indigenous people's own diverse perspectives on development Several fundamental and difficult questions are explored including the right balance to be struck between autonomy and participation and the tension between a new wave of assimilationism in the guise of pro poor and inclusionary development policies and the fact that such policies may in fact provide new spaces for indigenous peoples to advance their demands In this regard one overall conclusion that emerges is that both differences and commonalities must be recognised in any realistic study of indigenous poverty

Human Rights in Development, Volume 8 Martin Scheinin, Markku Suksi, 2021-11-29 The current edition of Human Rights in Development is the fourteenth in the series Over the years the structure of the yearbook has shifted from that of a journal to a thematic anthology The theme of this year's volume is Empowerment Participation Accountability and Non Discrimination Operationalising a Human Rights Based Approach to Development The Human Rights in Development Yearbook series takes its starting point in a development perspective and aims to be topical comprehensive and multidisciplinary exemplifying the cross fertilisation of theoretical and practical approaches Contributions are sought from researchers and practitioners in both recipient and donor countries To ensure an increased focus on Southern perspectives the editorial group is in a process of enlargement so as to include representatives from recipient countries Human Rights in Development is the result of a joint research project born out of longstanding cooperation between the following research institutes and centres for human rights the Christian Michelsen Institute Bergen the Danish Institute for Human Rights Copenhagen the Icelandic Human Rights Center Reykjavik the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute of Human Rights Vienna the Netherlands Institute of Human Rights Utrecht the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights Oslo the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law Lund and the bo Akademi University Institute for Human Rights Turku bo As in previous years the publication is aimed at a broad audience including government agencies donor agencies embassies the press non governmental organisations and the academic community

Minorities, Peoples And Self-determination Nazila Ghanea-Hercock, Alexandra Xanthaki, Patrick Thornberry, 2005 This volume presents new thinking on minority and indigenous rights in international law Debates that receive attention in this volume include self determination definitional issues collective rights and rights to natural resources Other chapters unravel challenges that have not attracted sufficient attention to date such as multiculturalism integration colour as a ground for discrimination and the economic and social rights of minorities The volume also looks critically at the work of the World Bank the African Union the Council of Europe and the OSCE in this arena Finally case studies highlight the regrettable similarities in the suffering of groups in different parts of the world as well as the stark contrast between state claims and their actual practice Genocide, Ethnonationalism, and the United Nations Hannibal Travis, 2013-01-17 Genocide Ethnonationalism and the United Nations examines a series of related crises in human civilization growing out of conflicts between powerful states or empires and indigenous or stateless peoples This is the first book to attempt to explore the causes of genocide and other mass killing by a detailed exploration of UN archives covering the period spanning from 1945 through 2011 Hannibal Travis argues that large states and empires disproportionately committed or facilitated genocide and other mass killings between 1945 and 2011 His research incorporates data concerning factors linked to the scale of mass killing and recent findings in human rights political science and legal theory Turning to potential solutions he argues that the concept of genocide imagines a future system of global governance under which the nation state itself is made subject to law The United Nations however has deflected the possibility of such a cosmopolitical law It selectively condemns genocide and has established an institutional structure that denies most peoples subjected to genocide of a realistic possibility of global justice lacks a robust international criminal tribunal or UN army and even encourages security cooperation among states that have proven to be destructive of peoples in the past Questions raised include What have been the causes of mass killing during the period since the United Nations Charter entered into force in 1945 How does mass killing spread across international borders and what is the role of resource wealth the arms trade and external interference in this process Have the United Nations or the International Criminal Court faced up to the problem of genocide and other forms of mass killing as is their mandate Ibss: Anthropology: 2003 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2004-12 First published in 1952 the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences anthropology economics political science and sociology is well established as a major bibliographic reference for students researchers and librarians in the social sciences worldwide Key features Authority Rigorous standards are applied to make the IBSS the most authoritative selective bibliography ever produced Articles and books are selected on merit by some of the world s most expert librarians and academics Breadth today the IBSS covers over 2000 journals more than any other comparable resource The latest monograph publications are also included International Coverage the IBSS reviews scholarship published in over 30 languages including publications from Eastern Europe and the developing world User friendly organization all non English titles are word sections Extensive author subject and place name indexes are provided in both English and French The Forest People without a Forest Glory M. Lueong, 2016-12-01 Development interventions often generate contradictions around questions of who benefits from development and which communities are targeted for intervention This book examines how the Baka who live in Eastern Cameroon assert forms of belonging in order to participate in development interventions and how community life is shaped and reshaped through these interventions Often referred to as forest people the Baka have witnessed many recent development interventions that include competing and contradictory policies such as civilize assimilate and integrate the Baka into full citizenship conserve the forest and wildlife resources and preserve indigenous
