The Industrialization Of Sao Paulo 1880 1945:

The industrialization of Sao Paulo, 1880-1945 Warren Dean, The Industrialization of São Paulo, 1800-1945 Warren Dean, 2012-03-28 São Paulo is one of the few places in the underdeveloped world where an advanced industrial system has grown out of a tropical raw material exporting economy. By 1960 there were 830 000 industrial workers in the state producing 3.3 billion worth of goods. It had become Latin America's largest industrial center. This is a study of the early years of manufacturing in São Paulo: how it was influenced by the growth and decline of the coffee trade; where it found its markets, its credit, and its labor force; and how it confronted the competition of imports. The principal focus, however, is on the manufacturers themselves: whose perceptions of their opportunities determined how industrialization was brought about. Warren Dean discusses their social origins, their connections with other sectors of the elite, their attitudes toward workers and consumers, and their view of the potentialities of economic development. He analyzes the political activities of the manufacturers to discover both how they promoted their interests and how they confronted the larger challenge of social and political transformation. Paradoxically, the industrialization of São Paulo is not a success story of private entrepreneurship. Until after World War II, manufacturing grew quite slowly, and its hallmarks were always low productivity, technical backwardness, and consumer hostility. More than half of the state's present large-scale factory production, and nearly all of its heavy industry, was built by foreign capital or state enterprise, not by privately owned firms. Dean shows that this outcome is partly a consequence of the historical experience of domestic manufacture. Throughout the book, the author points out the peculiar articulations of the industrial system of São Paulo: the significant social and political interests that determined what kinds of development were possible. The result is an exposition of an unusual case study in twentieth-century economic development.

The Industrialization of São Paulo Warren Dean, 1969 An Economic and Demographic History of São Paulo, 1850-1950 Francisco Vidal Luna, Herbert S. Klein, 2018-06-12 São Paulo, by far the most populated state in Brazil, has an economy to rival that of Colombia or Venezuela. Its capital city is the fourth largest metropolitan area in the world. How did São Paulo, once a frontier province of little importance, become one of the most vital agricultural and industrial regions of the world? This volume explores the transformation of São Paulo through an economic lens. Francisco Vidal Luna and Herbert S. Klein provide a synthetic overview of the growth of São Paulo from 1850 to 1950, analyzing statistical data on demographics, agriculture, finance, trade, and infrastructure. Quantitative analysis of primary sources, including almanacs, censuses, newspapers, state and ministerial level government documents, and annual government reports, offers granular insight into state building, federalism, the coffee economy, early industrialization, urbanization, and demographic shifts. Luna and Klein compare São Paulo's transformation to other regions from the same period, making this an essential reference for understanding the impact of early periods of economic growth.

Social Change, Industrialization, and the Service Economy in São Paulo, 1950-2020 Francisco Vidal Luna, Herbert S. Klein, 2022-07-19 In the 1950s-80s, Brazil built one of the most advanced industrial networks among the developing countries initially concentrated in the state of S o Paulo But from the 1980s decentralization of industry spread to other states reducing S o Paulo s relative importance in the country s industrial product This volume draws on social economic and demographic data to document the accelerated industrialization of the state and its subsequent shift to a service economy amidst worsening social and economic inequality Through its cultural institutions universities banking and corporate sectors the municipality of S o Paulo would become a world metropolis At the same time given its rapid growth from 2 million to 12 million residents in this period S o Paulo dealt with problems of distribution housing and governance This significant volume elucidates these and other trends during the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries and will be an invaluable reference for scholars of history policy and the economy in Latin America

Autos and Progress Joel Wolfe,2010-02-16 Autos and Progress reinterprets twentieth century Brazilian history through automobiles using them as a window for understanding the nation s struggle for modernity in the face of its massive geographical size weak central government and dependence on agricultural exports Among the topics Wolfe touches upon are the first sports cars and elite consumerism intellectuals embrace of cars as the key for transformation and unification of Brazil Henry Ford s building of a company town in the Brazilian jungle the creation of a transportation infrastructure democratization and consumer culture auto workers and their creation of a national political party and the economic and environmental impact of autos on Brazil This focus on Brazilians fascination with automobiles and their reliance on auto production and consumption as keys to their economic and social transformation explains how Brazil which enshrined its belief in science and technology in its national slogan of Order and Progress has differentiated itself from other Latin American nations Autos and Progress engages key issues in Brazil around the meaning and role of race in society and also addresses several classic debates in Brazilian studies about the nature of Brazil s great size and diversity and how they shaped state making

New Approaches to Latin American History Richard Graham,Peter H. Smith,2014-08-27 New Approaches to Latin American History incorporates methods and concepts from the social sciences without abandoning a distinctively historical approach A collection of original essays by distinguished younger scholars it proposes original concepts and methods for analyzing crucial problems in Latin American history Using as examples such subjects as slavery dictatorship immigration and the relationship between land ownership and political power the contributors show how approaches and techniques from psychology political science economics and sociology can be applied to historical studies The papers attempt to explain the thematic and substantive importance of the particular problems at hand describe and evaluate standard approaches to them propose original hypotheses suggest methods for testing the hypotheses or indicate major methodological or conceptual difficulties that have so far hampered such work Despite their diversity of content the papers show strong underlying unities First they all point to the need for placing institutions and actions in a broad societal context The authors present an implicit cumulative argument against the excessive isolation of historical phenomena Second they demonstrate the utility of interdisciplinary research Third they issue an implicit call for rigorous comparative analysis The propositions formulated in these essays can best be tested and modified in comparative fashion Ultimately this book deals with the exposition of a research style a style based on systematic doubt an awareness of the need for conceptual rigor and a willingness to try new methodologies For this reason it is of interest to historians in every field as well as to students of Latin America

The Western Reinvention of Chinese Literature, 1910-2010, 2022-07-04 During much of China's tumultuous 20th century May 4th and Maoist iconoclasts regarded their classical literary heritage as a burden to be dislodged in the quest for modernization This volume demonstrates how the traditions that had deeply impressed earlier generations of Western writers like Goethe and Voltaire did not lose their lustre to the contrary a fascination with these past riches sprouted with renewed vigour among Euro American poets novelists and other cultural figures after the fall of imperial China in 1911 From Petrograd to Paris and from São Paulo to San Francisco China's premodern poetry theatre essays and fiction inspired numerous prominent writers and intellectuals The contributors survey the fruits of this engagement in multiple Western languages and nations

Taking the Wheel Caren Addis, 2010-11-01 In this study the author whose affiliation is not stated discusses the auto parts sector as a microcosm of economic development in Brazil He follows the introduction of a horizontal vision for the industry and the hybrid organizational practices of the Fifties and early Sixties through the failure of the industry to consolidate and the subsequent unraveling and eventual partial reconstruction of horizontal arrangements Theoretical implications of the historical vision are also explored as are the background and strategic ingredients of the industry's strategy for exports and competitiveness Paper edition 01815 1 18 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Afro-Brazilian Culture and Politics Hendrik Kraay, 2016-07-01 The essays in this book constitute an analytic survey of the last two centuries of Afro Bahian history with a focus squarely on the difficult relationship between Afro and Euro Bahia and on the continual Afro Bahian struggle to create a meaningful culture in an environment either hostile or suffocating in its ability to absorb elements of Afro Bahian culture

The Birth of the Penitentiary in Latin America Ricardo D. Salvatore, Carlos Aguirre, 2010-07-05 Opening a new area in Latin American studies The Birth of the Penitentiary in Latin America showcases the most recent historical outlooks on prison reform and criminology in the Latin American context The essays in this collection shed new light on the discourse and practice of prison reform the interpretive shifts induced by the spread of criminological science and the links between them and competing discourses about class race nation and gender The book shows how the seemingly clear redemptive purpose of the penitentiary project was eventually contradicted by conflicting views about imprisonment the pervasiveness of traditional forms of repression and control and resistance from the lower classes The essays are unified by their attempt to view the penitentiary as well as the variety of representations conveyed by the different reform movements favoring its adoption as an interpretive moment revealing of the ideology class fractures and contradictory nature of modernity in Latin America As such the book should be of interest not only to scholars concerned with criminal justice history but also to a wide range of readers interested in modernization social identities and the discursive articulation of social conflict The collection also offers an up to date sampling of new historical approaches to the study of criminal justice history illuminates crucial aspects of the Latin American modernization process and contrasts the Latin American cases with the better known European and North American experiences with prison reform

Third World Industrialization in the 1980s Raphie Kaplinsky, 2010-11-26 First published in 1984 this work explores the issues surrounding the industrialisation of the Third World at the beginning of the 1980s The expectation that Newly Industrialising Countries would facilitate industrial growth via an outward orientated strategy had begun to be the combination of growing recession growing protectionism and the diffusion of radical microelectronics related technical change In addition the high indebtedness of developing countries made them increasingly dependent on assistance from the IMF and IBRD whose policies increased the tendency towards de industrialisation The papers in this volume explore all of these issues and their implication for LDC industrial strategy in the 1980s
