Time, 50-47 B.C* William Stearns Davis,2019-11-25 In A Friend of Cæsar: A Tale of the Fall of the Roman Republic William Stearns Davis crafts an engrossing narrative that immerses readers in the tumultuous years of 50 47 B C Set against the backdrop of a crumbling republic the novel blends historical events with vivid character portrayals and intricate political machinations Davis s literary style is rich and engaging employing a blend of classical language and accessible prose making the complexities of ancient Rome both captivating and comprehensible Through the eyes of his protagonist readers are invited to explore the moral ambiguities present in the struggle for power loyalty and the personal sacrifices that defined a pivotal era in history William Stearns Davis a noted historian and novelist possessed a profound understanding of Roman history which informs the authenticity and depth of this tale His academic background and passion for classical subjects shaped his narrative approach allowing him to weave facts with fiction artfully Having published various historical works Davis aimed to not only entertain

Jews, Gentiles, and Other Animals Mira Beth Wasserman,2017-04-21 In Jews Gentiles and Other Animals Mira Beth Wasserman undertakes a close reading of Avoda Zara arguably the Talmud s most scandalous tractate to uncover the hidden architecture of this classic work of Jewish religious thought She proposes a new way of reading the Talmud that brings it into conversation with the humanities including animal studies the new materialisms and other areas of critical theory that have been reshaping the understanding of what it is to be a human being Even as it comments on the the rabbinic laws that govern relations between Jews and non Jews Avoda Zara is also an attempt to reflect on what all people share in common and on how humans fit into a larger universe of animals and things As is typical of the Talmud in general it proceeds by incorporating a vast and confusing array of apparently digressive materials but Wasserman demonstrates that there is a whole greater than the sum of the parts a sustained effort to explore human identity and difference In centuries past Avoda Zara has been a flashpoint in Jewish Christian relations It was partly due to its content that the Talmud was subject to burning and censorship by Christian authorities Wasserman develops a twenty first century reading of the tractate that aims to reposition it as part of a broader quest to understand what connects human beings to each other and to the world around them
